i found this site that was making a large mod for renegade 2. it sounded really cool. it was based on red akert and red alert 2 they were getting along fine but ran out of funding to rent bandwidth and to pay some people so the shut down i think that rengaurd should take up this mod and finish it they said that if anyone was really thinking about it that they would give the files and ideas to them. who else thinx that they should do this??

i can't find the name right now so i'll get back to ya
