Wow, you're really paranoid, aren't you?

It's not a dying plea. RenGuard is far from dying. However, there are SOME people with the opinion that they will "wait until RenGuard is more popular" before running it, without realizing that it won't get popular unless they do.

It's not because RenGuard doesn't work, it's because people won't download it unless their favorite servers are running it.

And my servers are proof of this. They are starting to pick up, just like everyone else will experience.
