Ya, this is the same guy that designed all the templates for liquid2d.com, and this is what he makes for his own server site:

<http://www.jitterjunction.com/a11site/news.php>

:rolleyes:

a standard builtin template, and the only thing he adds is a stupid strip of text to the banner
:rolleyes:

As I've told you before, it was once a 2 man team. I designed 1-50. I'll be customizing my site with a theme soon. This is just a temporary theme untill I get some time.
