When I go into add remove programs I have the thing that will remove Ren, then I have another one that will remove Renguard, this is what I looks like:

Is this just a glitch or something, also, should I remove Renguard this way, or do it manually. I remember a post on this a while back excepte I cant find it, can someone give it to me? Also when I removed rengurd this way, my renengade wouldnt work   Had to re-install.

btw, beside the thing to ren, it only says aprox 900 megs
Just looking for some help.
