barrel03why dont there servers run renguard??
Because they are assrammers. They spread shit but when confronted with the truth - they call anyone disagreeing with them and supplying facts about renguard - "advertising" on their board.

Yet they quite happily flame Renguard with no facts.... the height of their assrammerness.

vloktboky is probably the worse, saying things like Quote:I would suggest you do not run it at all, as it violates the EULA by obtaining and using your serial key.

Somewhat I think that is a load of St
