oink, oink, snort, snort! :bomb:

M00Hack? M00 as in cow, and cow as in coward?

I get it, a coward hack! So you use this so called M00hack to make your self have the abilities of a coward! Cool, all you can do is run away in fear! Wouldn't that cripple your game play though, using a hack just to make you capable of running away? Wow, strangness, most people don't need hacks to run away and stay alive, I guess you have been having some very bad problems with learning to play the game. And I thought my dislexia was bad for my grammer, but you take the cake with needing a hack just to run away. Most people just pull out the pistol when they run out of ammo and backstep to safty as they shoot.

By the way Twix, to get to the pistol, scroll your mouse wheel till you see it, or press "1" while in a game. To back peddle, press either the down arrow or "S" if you have not changed you control configurations.
