But prank calling is only a joke to YOU and possibly your friends who are all huddled around chuckling at you calling because they don't have the balls to do it themselves.

Making it so that only YOU see it as a joke makes you look like a moron to everyone else. Saying, "D3V 1Z B4K!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!111111111oneoneone!!!!11one!!" would not be funny either, but it still would have shown that you aren't a moron who actually thinks that Dev is back. Plus, you could have at least let us know that it was a joke a couple of posts later instead of when you're flat out called a moron and then ask, "ever heard of a tool?"

You're a tool to stupidity.
