TreyD, man will i never forget this great man.

He took little of me, helped me out, and guided me along some of the paths i am currently on.

He was a great man, a great teacher, and a friend not to be without.

I have missed him since the day i last talked to him. I can't even delete the emails from my inbox from him, or his name from my icq. What he taught me about many things will forever stick with me, as well as his memory.

Always missing TreyD.
