Subject: argument between xptek and BC

xptekI'm not bragging about it, I'm stating you wouldn't need to worry about me releasing them because they're still on my server.

Aside from the fact that that makes no sense, my point is that you still have them. And yes, I would worry about you releasing it because you - still - have - them. If you didn't, then there wouldn't BE a way for them to get released again. But then again it wouldn't matter if you told me it was deleted, you've already proven to be a compulsive liar. I'm not going to continue this here...If you absolutely want to speak with me I'm sure you'll find a way.
