We played 4 games of clan match yesterday and one of the guys playing for there team kept getting kicked by Renguard everytime we started a new map. THe same guy over and over and not any of the otheres had a single problem. Is it possible that he is cheating or is this a flaw in Renguard because after getting kicked he came back to play the game. One more thing I didnt mention to anyone but I saw him kill a few gunner men while I was on his team in warmup and as he came around the corner killed them in like 1 second twice and later hes being kicked over and over again. After his first kick he usally came back to finish the game.

ANy ideas what happened
