:shocked:

So the whole mod is for the Reborn members only? There's no point in having a public mod if you don't intend on taking in what the public thinks. Hah, another reason why they and their mod sucks.

I believe that quote from AOD was taken out of context. It's not that general of a statement, he's speaking about a new logo for the Reborn development team. I think he's just trying to say it's not a public matter, it's ultimately the Reborn teams' decision what the logo will be.

I play renalert sometimes, but it could do with a lot of improving. Most if not all the levels are wide open and bland. There aren't enough soldiers to choose from, and from the ones that are there, there's only 1 anti-tank soldier for the Allies. There are only 2 basic characters too. I find most of the characters a bit boring and unappealing, although some of the texture work is accurate (like the allied officer). Nuclear strikes can take out as much as 3 buildings... the characters run faster to make up for the huge levels, which only creates even less C&C style to one-on-one battles, where people jump like they're on a really good dose of acid. Tanya is way overpowered.. I was wiping out soldiers with her like a knife to butter the last time I played, and volkov has that "whatever" aura to him too, firing one explosive at a time while jumping and dodging like #$$^*.

I think the difference between Renegade and Renalert, is that Renegade has more appeal to it, and I personally think it's more original and fun to play. I'd like to see more added into Renalert levels, such as more WW2-era bunkers and imagery. More than 3D bushes to hide behind would be nice too. Attack dogs would be great. Characters that make you want to come back and play it again and again, such as (to compare) the laser chaingunner for Nod, the GDI officer, hotwire, the flamethrower, stealth black hand.. timed C4 coming back would be great, as well as remote c4 being able to actually damage vehicles, and the 2 extra basic slots filled up. A good example of character look is the GDI rocketeer officer in my avatar.. come on, a guy like that makes you want to use him.

The Renalert levels are just too big, and I don't find it fun to run across a level with a soldier, reach the enemy base, and think "Whee, I'll go into the refinery and fire clips and clips of ammo at the MCT.. or, you know, I'll come back with a vehicle and engage in a generally unrollerskating battle with another."

Hmm, Reborn suxs, the moment they started making this mod they had big problems.

The first public beta they did was crappy. Vehicles too small, Maps too small, everything was bad. Even when they got the Half Life 2 Source code which made there mod go one level down.

Most of there latest gun models look like there for the UT 2004 Engine not for Renegade.

We don't want it to have the same "appeal" that renegade had. This isn't going to be just another renegade like some other mods are making. We are making a game with different gameplay, different units that have different purposes, and an overall different style.

It takes skill to use the units in RenAlert(except for tanya, and her RoF has been toned down), instead of relying on overwalmg amounts of damage coming from just one weapon. An artillery in RenAlert can't go and point whore the entire game until they fall asleep from boredom. You'll die within a minute unless you have other tank support.

What would be the purpose of more free infantry? Rifle soldiers already do more than enough damage to everything. If you want a higher class infantry then you need to go earn your money.

Renegade isn't original, it's typical. It's only made to appeal to you so you'll spend your money on it. And remember, whether it seems like it or not, this game is still onlt in the early stages of the beta. There's still a lot bigger and "1337er" things to come. We're only finishing up the basics now, soon it will be time to add all the extras and cool stuff

I absolutely love RenAlert maps as opposed to Renegade maps. So big, so much tactical variety. All of the standard Renegade maps are in freaking canyons, and force only one or two avenues of attack. The first episode of Red vs Blue comes to mind... On top of that, the actual play-space is relatively small, and there is shitty cover for infantry. By comparison, the RenAlert standard maps are large and open, but still maintain enough terrain to effect strategy; and my favorite part: the ground cover. Bunkers, bushes, trees, fox holes, destroyed buildings; if your enemy is inattentive to radar or just out of that short range, you can disappear into your surroundings. Rant over... 3 AM ... headache... ow...

If everyone has a right to their own opinion then let me atleast say what i think.

First off the quote stated that he does not care about the community has obviously been forever. I for one even offered to map for them, but i said i would not do any level edit work... I basically said take it or leave it, but i guess they dont need maps because they already have maps that are years old to date. They obviously cant map at all, or you would actually see a full collection of maps posted on the forums, but of course instead they decide to update every single texture 5 times before even comming close to making an attempt on a map.

I dont think they realize they wont go anywhere with only 5 maps to choose from, like hell its been 1 full year and not one single map has been posted yet..

It just gets to me alot, to even see a team working on a mod and not even attempt to make maps for it, but instead decide to constantly update pointless textures, as they were all fine to begin with.

I could care less about texturing, and i really dont care if it looks like real metal or not, i just hate seeing constant updates about OOOh a new texture.

Half the new models created are not even made by the reborn team, they must be glad 00oo00o0o is working for them, otherwise all they would be updating the public with, is new textures.

Common this is a mod right? then get some damn maps on the go, im sure if you guys can make a mod, you need to know how to make a damn map in the first place atleast?

Thats my say, its not my flaming, its my full opinion on why i do not like the mod at this point in time.

Jester718, Do you know what BETA means? It means PRERELEASE, UNFINISHED. When you do PUBLIC BETAS, OF COURSE IT MATTERS... ITS IS TESTED BY THE PUBLIC, OF COURSE THE PUBLIC WILL JUDGE IT. If you aren't ready, then just do INTERNAL betas rather than releasing a 'bug-free' public halfassed release.

You can't just keep releasing crappy betas and expect everyone to think "Oh one day when Fairy of Dawn releases a decent Final version, the game will rock..." because if you do, they might be waiting their entire lifetime for something non-existence to be released.

There should have been at least ONE map finished recently, look at the RenAlert mod - they have been pumping out maps.

I know renalert only has one mapper, but atleast aircraftkiller knows what hes doing to begin with.

Id like to see some screenshots of the progress of these so called maps, and who is it that is making them?

Atleast renalert already has a huge head start, because they already have about 17 maps.. Renegade only has 9 , so thats alot of extra maps, where as reborn only has 5, and half of them were made by other people in the renegade community. Then let alone they had to use Seige which is probably one of the oldest and most out played renegade maps ever made.

Seems to me, they will probably just rip off the westwood maps, and use them, seeming they think everything has that Tiberium sun feel to it .

Heh, I want a verse that specifically states that I cannot post on a forum simply because I don't play the game it relates too very often, or the verse that states that I cannot tell someone when their head is up their butt? Quite simply, attacking my religion seems like a bit of a shot below the belt. Kinda low if you ask me.

Not being a major part of this community anymore, I feel I have the right to post exactly what I want. If I see a good reborn model, I will post about it being a good model, if I see a poor model, I'll do the same. Same goes for RenAlert. I'm not biased towards either mod.

The only reason why I "troll" is because you need to get your head out of your butt and loose the superiority complex. Your stuff is good, but it isn't the best out there. You'd be a much better part of this community if you went ahead and helped people rather than just point out every little nitpicking detail out. (Seems you me you don't like it when people say your work sucks, so stop doing it to others, I'm sure you've heard someone say "do onto others what you'd have done unto yourself")

So yeah, I'll continue to post here, and I'll continue to tell you to remove your head from your butt as long as I want to. If you have a problem with me, so be it.

I'm a nice guy, if you ever got to know me you'd realize that I'm one of the most innocent, self respecting guys you'll ever meet. I don't curse, do drugs, have sex, or do anything else that's laid out by the Bible, just not sure where it says anything about me hanging out on a forum, or posting my opinion. Sure, there is the verse about pointing out specs in other's eyes when you've got a plank sticking out of your own, but in this scenario, I honestly couldn't have a plank in my eye simply because I'm not saying anything to anyone but ACK, and I don't do any modelling of my own, so it's simply an opinion.

Sure! Lemme just not give a shit in as few lines as possible.

(Sometime when God had forsaken the world) - AoD is born. Doctors question parents' sanity for conceiving in the first place.

(Sometime after that) - AoD gets the fantastic idea of creating a mod that sucks the gay out of Richard Simmons' ass.

(2002 - 2003) - Reborn is started. God cries.

(Summer 2003) - AoD hires approximately 20 Beta Testers, mostly from the United States. Steppo joins US Beta Test team.

(Still Summer 2003) - Steppo and team write a multi-page bug report, posted in the Reborn "Beta Team Only" forums, detailing many bugs that potentially ruin the overall "Fun" factor of Reborn.

(Fall 2003) - AoD and Steppo go head-to-head as AoD becomes infuriated with the "Excessive Negative Response" that the US team displayed.

(Fall again) - AoD disbands the US Beta Team for "Excessive Negative Comments" against Reborn.

(December 24th) - Reborn is released, promised to be a bug-free and "Non-beta release", yet proves to have more bugs than a bait store. God contemplates suicide. Steppo contemplates ranting.

(December 25th) - Steppo rants. (Copied from RenAlert due to lack of energy to find it anywhere else.)

So you bash them because you got fired...

I bash them because they have to have the most convoluted concept of a development process I have ever seen. They fired Beta Testers for talking about bugs too much. Correct me if I'm wrong, but aren't Beta Testers supposed to look for bugs?

Then, they make their initial release, originally promised to be BUG-FREE, mind you, and it had to be one of the most painful C&C experiences I've ever had, and that was just trying to INSTALL it.

Afterwards, it's the standard outrages and whatnot. Taking the Westwood logo. AoD explaining that all he cares about is the fanboys and yes-men who tell him he's doing such a wonderful job.

Etc.

There's plenty of reasons to bash "Deezer Studios" and Reborn. You just have to know where to look.

Stop it Steppo!!! You will bash the common opinion that ACK hates Reborn simply because it's competition with RenAlert!

But to do that, you'd have to prove that Reborn doesn't suck.

CrimsonStop it Steppo!!! You will bash the common opinion that ACK hates Reborn simply because it's competition with RenAlert!

Why Reborn? There are worse mods out there then Reborn, in fact, several are quite worse. In ranking of all the mods for Renegade, I'd have to say that Reborn is probably second best to RenAlert. And yet the only mod ACK ever publicly denounces is Reborn. And he denounces it a lot. In fact, I wonder if ACK EVER uses the word Reborn in the post without saying how bad it is. I wouldn't say that the so-called "common opinion" is too far from the bulls-eye.

Out of curiosity, ACK, if you see something that looks good outside of RenAlert, you don't ever actually bother to say that it looks good, do you?

Why bash Reborn? For me, it's from personal experience. I'd bash other mods, but i've never played other mods. Nor have I beta tested other mods (RenAlert being a VERY vague exception). Reborn has been handled poorly, developed poorly, and brought to the public poorly. Yet, the team still seems to believe it's the greatest mod in the world, and because of this, they enjoy bashing everyone just as much as Ack does. There's audacity, then there's stupidity. The latter falls on the shoulders of the Reborn crew. I should know, I was with them for a time.

From the releases I've played (All the way up to the latest). Not much has changed.

Sure, they added some new features, but the wanky installation process is still there, half of the bugs left over from the BETA days are still around, etc.

Believe me, there's still reason to bash.

I was talking about the current private betas. The new models, the skins that Renardin is doing, new characters, etc.

So he made skins for the units? Wow, I want to see that! Can I buy some bear skins from him? Did he get any rabbit skin? Oh, you mean he made textures and you think they're skins, but they're really not. :rolleyes:

Don't roll your unsexy Internet eyes at me.

If you are such an experienced modeler/texturer, how come you don't know that skinning and texturing is the same, when speaking about models. That reminds me, when is the last time you/your RenAlert Texturer took a piece of human skin, feeded it to the computer and applied it to a model?

My God! That is funny. I say, do you write your own material? A comic genius, that's what you are!

I'm glad you have such a firm grasp on the English language that you are able to turn a sentence around like that. That's skill if I ever saw it.

However, just because you are able to do so (again...kudos to you), does not make my original statement untrue. And my statement is a lot more founded than yours.

It's no less humorous than what you wrote, which wasn't funny at all. Try looking up sarcasm, it'll be good for you.

Your original statement has no founding in anything besides "It's your opinion, that's the only thing factual about it."

I'm not commenting on the value of arguing with anyone. I'm calling you a meddler, as in you rarely post unless it has something to do with me. You troll the forum, in other words.

You remind me of the moths that fly around street lamps at night.

Holy smoking piles of doo-doo, it's Derek Smart reborn(sic).

In case you're wondering, Mr. Smart recently made a big deal about trying to the rights to Freespace. We was known to have said repeatedly: "I don't care about the fans, I make games to please myself." and "Games are about the bottom line, if they don't make money their useless". Essentially, it it felt the Derek would likely make yet another Battleship 3000 clone using the Freespace License to draw the unsuspecting into his trap.
