I wanted to test and see if I can get the buggy in Half-Life 2 to reach an incredible speed, and it worked... I recorded a movie of it in Garry's Mod v5.

Here's the link, you're all going to love it:

Special thanks to Hossinfeffa for hosting this movie.

Enjoy.

lmao.. that was a good one

my friends are tough critics of the random shit i find on forums..

but even they liked this! lol

good eiting and music.

i really should just buy HL already lol im missing out

I think that movie just convinced me to buy half life two, that buggy's engine sounds almost identical to my truck on open headers LOL

That is some truely amazing physics, I can only imagine the drag racing game a guy could make...

You have no idea what vehicles can do in Source.

VTOL will kick ass.
