Since I was banned by Blazer over RenGuard...for...lag cheating...(My WOL is Cloudie86) It seems you can't play Renegade without Renguard so I thought to myself it's finally time to stop playing Renegade. I'm just a 13 year old dude using a minor exploit for a few kills...

Unless you guys wanna unban me off the RenGuard.(I'll stop cheating honestly), But if you guys don't then, does anyone want my Serial Number? You can eMail me at SEOmega@gmail.com since I rarely look at this forum anyway. But until then, I bought Unreal Tournament 2004 and Half-Life 2.

And I've also gone to learning PHP. I've coded a lite forum, gallery script, and a small image hosting script. :oops:

You can, though. Just go to your westwood/renegade folder and double click on game2.exe. It will start up renegade without having to lead renguard. You can also uninstall it. Go to add/remove programs and remove renguard. Don't worry if the file size says it's about 1GB big. That's just a bug. It won't uninstall renegade, just renguard.

I'm surprised you guys can code side server and can't even override a game command with a blank. LoL

No wonder barely anyone visits this place...The supportors use profanity and host servers with rules as NO PROFANITY. LOL

Buy a new copy of Renegade for about £3-5 and you will have a new serial.

Or just bugger off, because the last thing this game needs is another player who "just uses minor exploits." Don't people get it yet? One cheap kill is as bad as one thousand; nobody likes a cheater.

And no, nobody wants your serial number. We (well, most of us) already have Renegade. Ergo, we already have numbers of our own, and do not require yours. Besides, how is anyone to know that you haven't posted said number elsewhere already, thus rendering it useless from bunches of warez n00bs already having their slimy little fingers on it?

wtf!?!? im 13, you dont see me going around cheating do you?

Quote:does anyone want my Serial Number?

your serial is useless because it is banned from RenGuard

Quote:It seems you can't play Renegade without Renguard

if you cant figure out how to play ren without RG, then you seriously are a dumbarse, try reading the readme? :rolleyes: or perhaps the FAQ on renguard.com

Quote:I have proof. AIM me on LaoBoiWithPride and I'll turn on my webcam.

what difference does age make? :rolleyes:

change your IP? :rolleyes:

Quote:I'm surprised you guys can code side server and can't even override a game command with a blank. LoL probably because its not possible without source :rolleyes:

if little shits like you wasnt cheating in the first place, then we would have to worry about RenGuard at all!

YOUR SERIAL IS USELESS, NOW CUT THE CAPS!

Quote:I don't know much about computers and your learning PHP?

do you know much about anything?

0wn3d!

it takes a 13 year old to 0wn a 13 year old

The only "supporter" is me and my servers allow profanity. Get your facts straight.

He wasn't banned for lag cheating. He was banned for posting how to do it on a popular cheater's forum.

You actually WANT to be banned from Renguard servers?

Remember, Renguard bans via serial. (Unless the Renguard team is planing to lift the ban after the transfer has occured?)

What are the grounds for a ban, anyway? Excessive attempts at cheating?

Attacks on the RG network are grounds, or trying to use an altered version of RG. Other than that I don't see why excessive cheating would be a problem because RG would block it anyway.
