I set my avatar for this forum about a week ago but still a moderator needs to approve it. Would it be possible to look into this? tx.

You know I could say that we all cared dearly about your avatar, but I'd be lying my ass off.

I don't have avatar approval enabled, and when I go to the place where I would approve them, it says:

Quote:Avatar Approval System
There are no avatars pending approval.

Use imageshack.us to upload pictures, then use the BB code represented by:

[IMG][IMG]

and copy that code into your Signature space in your profile.

DJM: you posted 2 total unnecessary and certainly unwanted posts in here! You are quite annoying...

Found the prob: it's 150*150 and can't be more than 125*125. Will have to change that.
