Could you give me a serial plz to aid in IRC-bot development? I probably will donate it when i'm done with it (that is, if I don't have a permanent RenFDS box up by then).

Alright. Alright, I'm going to break down and admit this. I've always thought about running a dedicated server. Yes, I'm a hypocrite. Toss one of those FDS serials my way if you want. If not, that's cool. It's not terribly high on my list of things to do, but it'd be nice.

You probably don't have any left, however, not updated that you won't have any.

So, I'd be really glad to have one FDS-Serial. Just one. In case that you have, or, someone else has.

Thank you for sharing those Serials, even if I won't get one.

I* got it from a friend, and he said it was the fds server hosting, he said nothing about beta. So i was tricked into thinking i had the new one, now i have the new one.
