Really wierd lookign speakers. . . Yeah, but anyways they all look kinda strange, but the one I found most strange was the bookshelf one, I thought it looked sorta like an obelisk.

<http://www.soundruid.com/> That's the site with the speakers I'm talking about.

Wow. That's overpriced. You could probably pick up some old speakers off the side of the road and make some ones that look just like that for like $50.

taking old speakers and remaking them into the ones like that will cost about 0,5-2$ in Russia
