Hilarious clip. It's a large file, so expect a long load time. It starts out a little weak, but gets much better one the "real" game beings.

I've seen it before. It is really good and it perfectly replicates Counter-Strike.

Oh, and by the way, that's not real high definition. Hehe.

That is pretty sweet, but I wish they could have replicated the surroundings from the game as well, THAT would be awesome.

That was very funny

About that high definition, it's because the game's resolution would be pretty high..you know, real life resolution is
