You have posted a link to one website. Let me show you what is wrong with that.

1. It is a WEBSITE
2. It is ONE WEBSITE

At least check out a few fucking books for your opinions. You can improve your grammar and spelling at the same time so you can pretend not to be an illiterate moron.

-Armageddon
-Illuminati
-absolutely
-politicians

Give me one good reason why I should trust this schmuck, or group of schmucks.

Hellknights and Pinkies and Spectres and Zombies,
Rockets and Plasma and Pistols and Shotties,
Mars City chock-full of demons with wings...
These are a few of my favorite things!

...oh, you mean this world ending...

Never take the end of the world seriously. It's an event that's been "almost here" for at least the past two thousand years, and probably several thousand before that. I'll believe it when I see it.

LISTEN, these are not random conspiracy theories, I am not a crazy conspirasist, but I do belive some, just use your logics, and common sense. A new Korean War is coming, this is in the Bible on way or another. You know what "America" has declared? They declared that if the North Korean test missle lands on US soil it will be considered an act of war, and so did the Japanese. Now, you know that if some group with some serious power in the goverment told the generals to shoot that missile down over American soil to make it look like it was intended to hit America, HELL a 3rd World War will probably eurupt. The problem isin't only the North Koreans, it is also Iran. Iran has declared that if Iran is EVEN threatened by America, it has the right to use nuclear power agianst America! Now what have they been saying about their nuclear development, that they where only intereseted in electricity.

ZOMG were all gonna die, holy shit you mean if Korea fires a missle at America that America will see that as an act of war - thats fricking crazy-Koreans are testing a missle,why the fuck would they be stupid enough to put it anywhere near the US, it aint gonna happen.

I think if any country fired a missle at any other country they probably wouldn't be best pleased about it - talk about stating the obvious.

It's all just the media and government trying to keep everyone scared of various bogus "threats" so that you will support that retard Bush on his crusade to take over the world, lol.

If you look back through history you will see things that are comparable or even worse, we are living in historic times. You might ask why particularly these times are historic, just look around you look at all of the changes, madness, crazy politics (by that I mean the asshole politicians who called our troops in Iraq cold blooded killers, and those politicians who what to shut down the Gwontonomo-I don't know if I spelled this right prison, the politicians who keep bringing up those incidents where our troops killed innocent Iraqis, and there are many many more, like the North Koreans.) and you just can't leave out the damn media, who chooses to look at the negative and not the positive. We have companies who will pay you I believe it was $200 dollars if you had a microchip inserted in you, now it is being thought of guns being controlled by these microchips, taxes on the American Interstate, in Texas you HAVE to have a tracking device in your car, and if you take it out or if you fiddle around with it, the police will catch you and fine you, or put you in jail, also you have to pay, something like 35 cents to go 1 2 3 or 4 miles on the Interstate, this is kind of old, I don't remember the details exactly, but if you want I can give you a websites to prove these things.

Man dude, my ass doesn't produce this much shit. I fucking live in Texas and there's no chip in our cars. One's a '95 and one's a '99. We didn't put chips there and they were made long before you're claiming all this happened, so unless you expect me to believe that a government agent slipped passed our two dogs and into our locked garage, installed a microchip without waking anybody up or making any noise of any kind, did so before daylight, and got back out of the locked garage and past our two dogs again without any clues at all or messing anything up, you logically must be full of horseshit.

Go drive down I-35 and see if you have to pay a toll anywhere on it. You're probably confusing the interstate with the toll roads, which is pretty hard to do unless you're a blithering retard.

And just for everyone's benefit:

I see where you are coming from, it is a GREAT way to interpret it, but when the world's major leader, leaders who can launch nukes, join a group and can essentially play out the end of the world, for example, every president in one room, Bush tells North Korean leader to do something to anger the American people he does it we have a reason to go to war. I don't know why they want this, perhaps they want to reduce the world population to about 500 million people and have total control over it.

I say the world takes care of the evil people, yes evil, and establishes a truly good society, one where there will be no suffering, and we do live in a time and place where homes can be ENTIRELY self sufficient, they can grow their own, food, produce their own electricity and etc.... THEN the world can truly rest. I don't think that in this day and age, goverments are needed. Yes we would have to build places to advance tecknology, and have a world wide military, but after all, the people would be free, they wouden't have to rely on the government.

Who called them "cold blooded killers?" To do so would be political suicide and no politician smart enough to think up these elaborate plots would say that if they wanted to actually gain the trust of the American people.

Quote:in Texas you HAVE to have a tracking device in your car, and if you take it out or if you fiddle around with it, the police will catch you and fine you, or put you in jail, also you have to pay, something like 35 cents to go 1 2 3 or 4 miles on the Interstate

Man dude, my ass doesn't produce this much shit. I fucking live in Texas and there's no chip in our cars. One's a '95 and one's a '99. We didn't put chips there and they were made long before you're claiming all this happened, so unless you expect me to believe that a government agent slipped passed our two dogs and into our locked garage, installed a microchip without waking anybody up or making any noise of any kind, did so before daylight, and got back out of the locked garage and past our two dogs again without any clues at all or messing anything up, you logically must be full of horseshit.

Go drive down I-35 and see if you have to pay a toll anywhere on it. You're probably confusing the interstate with the toll roads, which is pretty hard to do unless you're a blithering retard.

And just for everyone's benefit:

Therefore thrash300 = Illuminati

Like I said, I don't remember the exact details, these things might be already in place, or they might be in the working.

Double posting is one thing, but 5 posts in 18 minutes... wow. Use the edit button, please.

Anyway, on nuclear weapons- the world has been under threat of nuclear warfare for more than half a century. It is prudent to have an emergency plan about what to do if you survive such a war (it would be over, after all, in a few hours), but you simply cannot waste your life worrying about it every day. It is a background threat, and one that has very nearly been realized many more times than the general public is aware of (the Cuban Missile Crisis was merely the most publicized). Conspiracy of world leaders to depopulate the world? Collaboration between Bush and Kim Jong to start a nuclear war? Where does that bullshit even come from, really?

Are you kidding me? I was born here to parents who were born here to parents who were born here on back to the 1800s and farther and am as white as white can be. Besides, what would it matter if I was legal or not?

Don't remember the exact details...sounds like a convenient excuse for someone who is spoonfed false and misleading information from someone they found promoting themselves through a medium that is not exactly renowned for its accuracy or impartiality.

Hey I didn't mean to offend you, relax. I found the place where I can prove a lot of what I was talking about.

Here it is: http://www.infowars.com/articles/ps/toll\_roads\_its\_the\_law\_f\_eds\_pave\_way.htm

READ IT and please be open minded about, don't just shut it out because it is a "Conspiracy"

Just remember that the money you have is YOUR money, the taxes that you are paying go to circulation and is by no means not your money.

Just watch this video, the whole video.

http://infowars.com/video/previews/promo/aj\_promo\_wm\_med.htm

Ask yourself this: what world do you live in, the fashon world, the real world, the cyber world, or the world where the laws are made and you follow them blindly.

And don't give me that smart crap either. Talking on the Internet is just like talking to a person, ow wait it is talking to a person, but a person who is usually far away from you. Man grow up and mature.

I'm pretty sure I live on a wet, bumpy rock called Earth.

Though that "cyber world" sounds cool and mysterios. OoOoOo, internets!

And, you know, if some idiot ran up to my house and started giving me this bullcrap, I wouldn't just taunt him, I'd call the cops. You wouldn't get me to be any more mature if you met me in person, trust me.

Why would you give me a link to the cyber world to tell me to live in the real world?

Quote: Talking on the Internet is just like talking to a person, oh wait it is talking to a person, but a person who is usually far away from you.

Except for the part where the person has total anonymity and doesn't have to worry about issues like accuracy or impartiality...or annoying things like facts...and can instead rely almost totally on emotional statements that sound good but really have almost no logical basis at all.

If you think pointing out the logical flaws in your alarmist mindset is crap, you've got a lot of maturing to do yourself.

Trash you have no right to tell people to mature, you believe a bunch of bullshit that is on some moronic site. People as dumb as you shouldn't be aloud to live in this country, if you don't like it here then leave. Atleast spare us from your idiocy and stop posting. Go chat with some other conspiracy theorist on some other forums.

I do have the right to tell people to be mature about something, I am mature. Because in the end there are very bad consequenses for everybody. You can't live in oblivion you have to wake up. People just have to be warned, the rest is entirely up to them. Up to you. Watch your tone, who the fuck do you think you are talking to?

Stfu. You had more credibility WEN U TYPED IN ALL KAPS LIK DIS. Don't try to portray the image of someone calm, collected, or rational. You're failing miserably. You've established your reputation already.

I'm taking bets for how long it took thrash to format his last response to it's legible. Any takers?

If the information on the last few posts is any indication, I'd say 18 days, 57 minutes.

I shall paraphrase:

Quote:I doubt that anyone on this topic has any experience in [politics], so if you are trying to [discuss this] I suggest you do it privately, or get a [politician] into this topic.

By the way, this is to the person who created this topic:

Is this what you do to kill time.

Bracketings mine.

thrash300I am mature.

Hi, I'm Theodore Roosevelt.

thrash300Because in the end there are very bad consequences for everybody.

"No matter who you are, you're in deep shit. You might as well kill yourself as something bad is going to happen." That's pretty much the undertone of your sentence. Bad things happen to people, but not necessarily "in the end".

thrash300You can't live in oblivion you have to wake up. People just have to be warned, the rest is entirely up to them. Up to you.

So because you hold a certain opinion, we're automatically supposed to support it else we're the blind ones and have to "wake up"? You're just as ignorant and arrogant as the religious far right.

"REPENT NOW OR YOU'RE DAMNED". Until it's proven, you can't claim your beliefs or opinions to hold absolute truth.

thrash300 Watch your tone, who the fuck do you think you are talking to?
It's quite obvious. He is talking to an idiot.
