Triple posting is posting three times in a row, like you did.
Just edit your first post instead of posting more.

As for the map, I'll give it a 4/10 for effort.

The buggies are so tall, that they simply go over the blockers, making them useless. As for the jumps, they are way too small, and need to be fancier looking. Try making some cool flame emitters at some of them or something. Also, make a blocker at the edge of the map so that you can't fall off.

Yes, you triple posted. Don't feel the need to bump topics unless it's been a while. Editing your posts is better.

As for your map, it's an ok start. Everyone has to start somewhere!
