today, was in unrules new maps server, in the tunnels, i was a gunner, and had a duel with a nod mini gunner.

needless to say, i owned him, without losing any health or armour.

as soom as i killed him, i got a pm from him calling me a cheater.

so i pmed him back with the word 'n00b' to which he replied calling me a loser, so i laughed at him.

has something similar ever happened to you guys, and how did u respond?

Yes, and write a n00bstory on http://www.n00bstories.com. You should do the same.

I had a guy call me a cheater because I killed him with a body shot from a Railgun. He apparently thought he was invincible and hadn't just been hit a few times by two guys who came up beside him. I called him a dumbass.

what i hate is when n00bs think that just cos people arent running rg, that they are cheating.

i had linux for a short period, and got renegade to work on it. i couldnt use rg as it wouldnt work. i joined a crazy ctf server, and this n00b came at me with an obi gun, and started shootin at me but kept missing, but the animation was the thing that hit me. so anyway, i killed him and there he was, accusing me of cheating after he checked if i was running rg.

I was once playing map Walls, we were attacking the enemy base and we were standing next to the enemy walls. Now, there was a friendly tank, and some noob got out of it to repair it. I attempted to get in so that no one will steal it, but the driver instead of repairing started watching me and waiting to se what I will do.
When I attempted to get closer get got in the vehicle and still had time to PM me "fuck off noob".
I was so busy, that I did not have time to reply, because like I said, we were right in front of enemy walls.

Another time, I was Raveshaw and was chasing someone into the GDI tunnels from the outside of the base (this was on the map walls too). Now, I suck at using single-bullet-kill weapons, but I got lucky and and shot him just as he was about to disappear at the end of the tunnel. After he got shot, he still had like 1 HP left but died like 2 or 3 seconds after-wards(probably from the burning that the rail gun causes after it hits).
He immediately used forcerg! command on me, but I had renguard, so nothing happened. I felt like laughing.

Once on the Walls.flying map, this GDI n00b approached the base...he was like rock hugging and walking towards the Nod base entrance.

I was on the bankments on the top with my usual BH laser minigunner character. I saw the n00b coming...in predictable jumps and turns.

Then I aimed for him...I noticed his health was like 2 red blocks. I fired for maybe an instant and the n00b died.

Then he came back and called me "bastard cheater." I told him "idiot, you health was like 0."

He called me more names then stopped. What a dumb n00b!

Ugh, I get called cheater a lot of times, for pistolwhippin havoc with engy, headshotting two snipers in a row with a 500, killing n00bs constantly from a pretty far distance with a med tank (splash shots, body shots, headshots) for example.

Sometimes I just say YES I HAX, sometimes I say STFU NUB.

This happens to me ALL THE TIME...

All I do, is explain the situation... and they stop responding.

I also run Renguard... I have even been kicked for cheating even AFTER they saw I was using Renguard... -_-

Renguard = Fall Of Renegade

lol, i never use it. i have never been kick or warned for not using it. thats because i don't cheat.

and yes, it was the fall of renegade. people will never trust it, because they think that some people are 1337 h4x0rs that hack all day.

Even with renguard, i find it hard to beleive that about 15 people get NOTHING but headshots, can see SBH from across the map, and can rank up 100 kills a game, with 5 deaths.

Im not going to name names.

Renguard is easily bypassed until the new one comes out..
You guys are pretty confused. Renguard isn't the "fall of renegade", cheats are.
