Do you realize that every person who's banned blames it on their brother?

That ban wasn't even placed specifically on you. You are trying or were trying to bypass RenGuard. THE BAN WILL NOT BE REMOVED.

Stop trying to be an internet tough guy, you retard. Do you realize how fucking stupid you sound? Of course, you don't, else you wouldn't say it. Unplug your computer and go outside, fucker.

this guy is really badly making me laugh.

A: he cant talk properly and it is difficult to understand

B: he actually thinks threatening people over the internet works

this guy needs to get some perspective

Disconnect your computer from the internet. Then light it on fire.

If it's your renegade serial, than you are responsible to whoever got you banned (if you gave out your serial, or let someone use your computer) If it's your brother/friend/whoever's serial, than it is THEIR responsibility that they got banned, if that's the case, you need to talk to them in order to square it. Judging by the answer of not even 30$ is going to cut it, i doubt that's going to happen.

Recap - if your serial, your responsibility

if not your serial, than its the responsibility of the person to whom it belongs to. You can't blame Renguard for something like this, it's the responsibility of whoever owns the serial. Whoever that may be.

I was banned from RG once and imho if you ever stood the slightest chance in hell of being unbanned, you threw it away when you posted threatening the members of this forum. Accept responsibility for what you did, say sorry and swear on your mothers life you will never do it again, and you would be fucking blessed by god to be unbanned. Otherwise, just go away and stop making things worse for yourself. You hack, you get banned. Simple story. Crimson can be more than fair when she wants to be.
