Lol. Advantage skins.

Not really. And you suck at "sniping".

Your video was not too impressive. However, I suggest that you start practicing with the Blackhand Sniper and Dead Eye instead of using Havoc and Sakura. There are many advantages doing so.

Another suggestion would be to remove the bright colored skins. Without them you will gain more experience playing. I mean, its harder to point out a C4 if its the default model texture rather than a bright colored model texture that you can see half way across a map. It is n00bish in my opinion.

Keep practicing though and your next video will be better.
