Yeah, in your imagination.

1. Too many servers as it is.
2. Dedicated servers cost money, so I highly doubt someone will host a server for you on theirs without charging.
3. This community isn't exactly friendly.

spider, your a faggit.
You cheat, got banned from a few servers (mine included), then ask in another thread how to change your ip? now you want your own server? ROFL

It makes sence in a way. In his own server he can cheat all he wants. only problem: he needs to get people in it...

1) download map with bots in
2) host 1 player lan game
3) play with your stupid pointless cheats against the bots, they dont care about it.

Hell! I would give him a server if ALL the cheaters just stayed there together, well the cheaters and 56ker's.

We should make a server named 'cheating allowed', and then ban the ip's of everyone who joins on all the other servers, so they can only join that one

Ah better then that, could make it so that soon as you join, an script would ban the player and then send a page to each server which would with a script added to a user, would auto type the players ip and ban them from their server aswell.

Pwnage.

Eh, you're all missing a key element here.....

If you say "Cheating is allowed here" then how would it be appropriate to ban them for cheating there? YOU ALLOWED IT! lol

Thats why I said ban them from every OTHER server when they join that one

But it's a daft idea, hope nobody took it seriously As pointed out, people who don't cheat / hack might join (to write down a list of names), so it wouldn't work very well.

how if you allow only cheating, like you will get banned if you won't use fr. The server could run with a toll maybe called Anti-Renguard. everyone who don't use modified files will get banned for "not cheating"!

sypder, you joined, kill 3 meds off the bat, less than 3 secs, with your pistol, and you say you dont cheat? oh ok then ps, if you dont cheat, why would you make a previous thread about changed your IP, then when I posted, stopped posting in that thread?

 <TRPM_Bot> [30/09/06 - 02:55] [BAN] spyder cx2 was banned by trooprm02 for 'hacks'. (Ban ID 3)

they join a server, take up a person slot. and do nothing but lag around.

Maybe he means something else, but it does really bother me when people are ignorant enough to think that people with 56k can actually lag the server.

It's more to do with the fact they lag kill.

Btw, if someone hosted a server where cheating was allowed, is anyone naive enough to think that that's where cheaters would play?

It's been done before, and the server lasted for a while too.
