The Nod Soldier on the right looks like he is floating a bit. Weird perspective I guess.

Yeah, way to make a 2 year bump. This was worked on a few times by people here on these forums.

The black one has indeed been made and released on game-maps. Though the texture quality lets it down but I have never encounterd someone with a finished version of that silver sniper rifle.

If someone really has that silver sniper finished (with the correct texture) then he should release it.

Maybe I should get around to finishing the texture for this rifle, since Reaver11 sent it to me a while back.
