I just downloaded RG 1.0323 and i installed the updates for it... when the update was complete it asked me to restart the program... when i restarted Renegade an error message popped up... "error code:00000005" anyone have any clue on how to fix this problem? thanks.... (I'm running it on Windows Vista)

I think you misunderstood. Can someone who runs Vista and understands what Goztow said please make a set of screenshots showing how to do this? (I'd do it, but this is Windows XP)

You can't do anything at all.
