Why is it 57MB and what actually is in the mod besides maybe about 20 mp3 sound files??

Did you zip it??

Got any pics??

You don't need 90MB of useless .tga files in your mod. That's why the map is 100MB. Empty your editor cache and delete the always and characters folders before you export the map. That will cut it down to about 10 MB. If you set up the purchase terminal settings as Temps, you can also delete the objects.ddb file (cutting another 5MB). That should also let it be a .mix file instead of a .pkg.

Also that extras are pretty pointless i don't think there is any need for size 20 bold text and that sort of language ACK. I can understand that the mod is useless but normal people will accept that and not let all hell break loose with comments like that. That's not arrogance, dumbass.

He's posted this topic over fifteen times - the first five times being about the beta version of a map he had nothing to do with, just adding vehicles that already exist... Making it over 50 MB?

People know it's crap, they've told him that, yet he refuses to listen and continues to post it.

You are arrogant. Period. He's posted over 15 times??? Maybe a minor exaggeration. His post count only adds up to 8. Who doesn't know there history now?

You think you are special huh? Well your not. People have to start somewhere. Just like you, exopt when some people have lots of knowlage about somthing they don't shove it in other peoples faces, to make them feel like there scum of the earth. And he started by making a worthless mod. Did that hurt anyone? NO. Did that warrent a post like you made ACK? NO. You need to go to temper management classes or somthing, cause you have some serious mental problems.

I'm sorry to inform you ACK, but yes YOUR SHIT DOES STINK, AND IT's the most grotesque smell I ever seen. As far as I'm concered, your one of the many scums of the earth. I've seen how you treated people in this forum, the renalert forum, and in the n00bstories chat and many other places. You act like you feel it's your job to put down those who deserve it, and those who don't deserve it. Well, it's not your job. You have a very bad attitude towards other people, and I don't like it, and alot of other people don't like it either. I don't give a shit wat you do for the Renegade community, what do we owe you somthing? None of us owe you a damn fucking thing. You donate your own time yourself for the renegade community, we don't ask you to, therefore, once again, we don't owe you a damn bit.

I'd like to see you lighten up on people a little, give some people a break, granted they may not know as much as you do in making mods, or wiping there ass as you do, but you should treat people they way you would want to be treated. This world needs more of those kinds of people then, arrogant assholes such as yourself. And I don't speak out of opinion, THAT IS FACT.

Who looks like the arrogant one now? You. Lighten up kid.

"You are arrogant. Period. He's posted over 15 times??? Maybe a minor exaggeration. His post count only adds up to 8. Who doesn't know there history now?"

Actually thats the only part i'll have to disagree with you on. Take in mind these are the new forums, and everyone's post have been wiped clean. I remember this guy (his name was N/A) from the old forums, and I have seen this topic numerous times. He's always had this canyon modified crap ever since october or so, we have already tried to give him advice as well as to try to get him to do something else besides "Canyon Modified". He even said he would "modify" other maps too (this was in october still) yet he is still stuck on "Canyon Modified". We have tried to give him a push awhile back ago (told him to cut the 100MB down some, as well as how to cut it down as in the steps, what its superfluous, and what is needed), but he just keeps doing the same thing over and over, and its getting tiresome. Even after all this time he hasn't come up with "City Modified" or anything else in the past 6 months! :rolleyes:

I didn't pay attention to the boards much before the wipe. I was basing my facts on after the wipe. So I was wrong there. But Still, ACKs reply to his post was uncalled for. his post should have been ignored, if you repeatedly tryed to give advice to him, and he doesnt take the advice, hes should be ignored.

Maybe you should shut the fuck up... You contradict yourself every time you post something.

If you want everyone to get along, and you don't want bad things said - why are you contributing to what you supposedly hate others doing?

Why do you have "ACK is the crappage" in your signature, as well?

Jeez, you moron... Wake up and smell your own hypocrisy.

Description of Ad Hominem

Translated from Latin to English, "Ad Hominem" means "against the man" or "against the person."

An Ad Hominem is a general category of fallacies in which a claim or argument is rejected on the basis of some irrelevant fact about the author of or the person presenting the claim or argument. Typically, this fallacy involves two steps. First, an attack against the character of person making the claim, her circumstances, or her actions is made (or the character, circumstances, or actions of the person reporting the claim). Second, this attack is taken to be evidence against the claim or argument the person in question is making (or presenting). This type of "argument" has the following form:

Person A makes claim X.

Person B makes an attack on person A.

Therefore A's claim is false.

The reason why an Ad Hominem (of any kind) is a fallacy is that the character, circumstances, or actions of a person do not (in most cases) have a bearing on the truth or falsity of the claim being made (or the quality of the argument being made).

Example of Ad Hominem

Bill: "I believe that abortion is morally wrong."

Dave: "Of course you would say that, you're a priest."

Bill: "What about the arguments I gave to support my position?"

Dave: "Those don't count. Like I said, you're a priest, so you have to say that abortion is wrong.

Further, you are just a lackey to the Pope, so I can't believe what you say."

Heh Heh Ownage

Dave sounds Like ACK, lol

Yes, precisely. However the evidence is indeed fact, by lack of response. And the continuing belligerent attacks against others in this small community.

Suicide generally runs as a genetic pattern. People who have a tendency to think about it, may also have a serious problem in as much as they would even entertain that or, as once again a and really seriously entertain, crisis intervention.

i don't, ACK can be a little over judgemental at times, but his maps are great, even though most of them are westwood's. He still had to do the work on the maps to even get them into Commando, and we all know how much work commando is. (us modders anyway) In this case, ACK had a good reason to flame Zeratul, Zeratul is a dumbass who thinks people will download his 100 MB
