after I gone into the game. it crashes a few seconds later.

Is renguard or the core patch is causing my game to crash or something????

I need some support here .

If you have installed scripts.dll 3.4 then you need to update to 3.4.1 to fix a memory leak in 3.4

How can we get those, i want to make sure i am running the same scripts (double check).

EDIT: NM, stumbled upon it, do i just extract them to my Renegade Folder in its seperate file or do i extract everything into the file without its own file?

Here.

The .exe's make it much easier.
