You just starting playing, you are a nub, I was too once, then I became leet, we all are now...then when you get to this point you get tired of renegade and play it once a day, not 8 hours a day.

First, I find that image offensive as I am Christian.

Secondly, I see where this guy is coming from. Most people that want to do team tactics sometimes exclude rookies. They say APC rush, many new players don't understand that an APC rush also means engineers and technicians/hotwires. And many people kick rookies for doing things like camping, tunnel nukes, flaming APCs, and repairing the enemy. Instead of telling the people how they should play the game, they just tell them not to do things and then kick them before explaining them.

I think moderating a server should also include educating rookies on how to play instead of kicking them without fully explaining why they were kicked or giving them a chance to correct their mistakes.

Well for one thing, don't post in caps, people don't like to read that.

And another thing, the word "Noob" is supposed to offend you just ignore it, because normally people who use the term "Noob" are just morons who can't play very well.

If your playing on a server where mods kick you for things besides the server's rules (Like cursing at a mod, not doing a plan a mod came up with, ect) than you shouldn't play on that server..

side note i dont call anyone a noob, because thats really nerdy... i call people pubs. pubs is short for public. and usually pubic players are idiots... no offense.

now im gonna sit back and watch people attack me

If you weren't from the UK (or North America) I would excuse you from your lack of grammar knowledge and PROPER use of capitalization. However, that's not the case, so you might want to brush up on the material that your schools have been feeding to you. Believe it or not, some of it is actually useful in the real world!

Also, Renegade is a community filled with assholes (myself included!). You'd be better off just continuing to play on servers and then once you're a regular, people tend to be a little nicer to you. Until then, enjoy.

It's ok...I was the one who disabled my picture seeing the Christians here can't handle it. I was afraid they will pray to Jesus to cause my car to crash lol.

Funny thing is how the Christians get offended by that picture and then go on to say some shit about APC rushes and call for training n00bs instead of kicking them off the server! For fucks sake LMAO! Like as if Jesus will endorse these violent video games ROFL.

I'm a Christian and I though the picture was funny. I also like how you some how managed to mix a person's beliefs with a game. One is for fun, the other is part of the person's personality.

No offense, but this shows you learned absolutely no lesson after you where banned from almost every Renegade server for cheating.

And in absolutely NO way is cheating going to make you better at the game. All it will accomplish is making you worse! Because you will be so accustomed to having the advantages of cheats, that you will never get any better without them.

Not to mention you have to be some kind of special idiot to post something like that on the OFFICIAL forums for the game...

ok... last time i included a nub in a stank rush, i bought him a stank, told him to 'get in, and follow us(was about 6 stanks in a 9v9 game)'. We were in field and he starts shooting at an orca... more orcas come. Rush fails Due to NUB.

if the host gets on ur nervous and kick u change ur ip and ur nick and hack the renegade online (that is how i get better at renegade) then if u hack ur rank will go high and u will not be know as a noob anymore {SIMPLE} if u need any help with hacking just tell me i'm here 24/7

No offense, but this shows you learned absolutely no lesson after you where banned from almost every Renegade server for cheating.

And in absolutely NO way is cheating going to make you better at the game. All it will accomplish is making you worse! Because you will be so accustomed to having the advantages of cheats, that you will never get any better without them.

That is why they say (The second quote):

whos the noob? the noob? or the noob who rels on the noob....

nvm

i kinda agree with the whole noob thing. noob has become a steriotype for anyone who is stupid/doesnt know shit/worthless.
its like it doesnt even mean newbie anymore.

i suggest this, and it will fail, as no one will do it:

we call the newbies newbies and we call the idiots who dont know shit, think theyre all high and mighty, total assholes, and those who we useually call noobs, we should call them banned ^.^

if your reason for calling them a noob is not good enough to get them banned, then its not worth calling them a noob.

and what do you get out of calling people a noob? does it make you feel all powerfull that you have burned a person who is new, or just plain sucks?

and give the newbies a chance.
i figure that you people dont give them a chance because your afraid that they will become better than you, and you wont be top dog anymore. not true? prove me wrong by giving them a chance.

and if you had 6 stanks, and only one showed, the other 5 sohuld have gotten through, so you all failed sadly.

but ya that guy really was a dumb shit for shooting that orca ^.^

and before you can call me a noob, i am. i cant even play the game lol. the only thing im good at is yuris revenge.

SO
AM
NOOB

and if you noobishly call me a noob, then your obviously too stupid to realize that its already been stated that im a noob, and so youll only be reinventing the wheel.
no patents for you, no nobel prize.

and no boubt there will be someone stupid enough to restate the obvious....

...WHY DON'T YOU COME OUT AND FIGHT LIKE A MAN YOU LITTLE COWARD

I sort of agree, when snipers kill noobs or the free infantry and then they think they own and that they are so good.

Because kill whoring basic infantry is not something that is really to be bragged about.

500 Sniper killing free infantry = some skills.

Ramjet killing free infantry = no skills.
