This is causing a lotta problem with reneagde server problems and this is a kinda cool cheat from 0X90, but I was wondering what you guys think and what is it like and general stuff like that about it. I mean I don't use it unless I am in a LAN game with friends and they know I am using it and they are using it to. I would never, EVER use it online play.

Honestly, who the fuck thinks, "hey, I'm going to start a topic about a cheat that could very well potentially get me banned from these forums and the topic locked"? It takes a special kind of idiot, that's for sure.

I mean, Honestly, Considering that n00bstories advertise renegadeforums on there server, some newbs will stop by here, look at this topic, google, and this game will be ruined.

I honestly don't know how people can't realize why cheat name removed(< that now says cheat name removed right?) is concerned for a reason.

Stop with the idiotic topics or please leave these forums for good.

nah just make sure you touch some iron bars or w/e and you should be fine with 1 knife, presuming you got the right hole (with AC there is a wire that doesnt have any current on it and one that does, more or less)

But why is it not acceptable on a computer at my house that does not connect to the internet, the problem with cheats is because they effect and hurt people, when I use them at my computer at home which does not connect to the internet, it does not effect them at all. Yes I suck at Renegade so when I do play online at a friends house I don't use them. Like I said earlier I only use them at home when I play by myself.
