It's called Public Relations. You're advertising a server, so you want to be semi-professional to garner some support and interest from the community. It's quite a simple idea. I guess it's just too much to ask from you.

Ur
From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia
Jump to: navigation, search

For other uses, see Ur (disambiguation).

Ur was an ancient city in southern Mesopotamia, located near the mouth (at the time) of the Euphrates and Tigris rivers on the Persian Gulf and close to Eridu. It is considered to be one of the earliest known civilizations in world history. Because of marine regression, the remains are now well inland in present-day Iraq, south of the Euphrates on its right bank, and named Tell el-Mukayyar [1], near the city of Nasiriyah south of Baghdad.

The site is marked by the ruins of a ziggurat (right), still largely intact, and by a settlement mound. The ziggurat is a temple of Nanna, the moon deity in Sumerian mythology, and has two stages constructed from brick: in the lower stage the bricks are joined together with bitumen, in the upper stage they are joined with mortar. The Sumerian name for this city was Urim.[2]

1. If you're going to advertise a server that you DON'T own, it's probably smart to make that known AND to not make it look like slack-jawed idiots run rampant in the server.
2. If you're going to advertise a server that you DO own, it's always smart to show that you're not an idiot and that you ARE capable of providing the service you're advertising.
3. It doesn't matter if I can understand it or not. Though, it's quite a bit more difficult to understand gibberish than well-written English.
4. My talks of public relations and press releases were before I knew that he was just a regular advertising their server. Regardless, any time you announce a new service/product, you're wanting to grab the attention of people, and randomly spamming and misspelling every other word is NOT a good way to do that.

Posting about a server and spelling information correctly is totally irrelevant. It was all about spreading the word which seems to have turned out to be a disaster. I think it would be wise to lock this topic.

This topic is pointless. People should at least try to spell, credit will be given for those who don't have English as their first language or if you have something like dyslexia. Else, taking the time to write our your words properly makes it nicer to read.

I typed the second sentence 3x as fast. Typing like you're some kind of backward, dim-witted, mentally defected imbecile is actually no easier than typing the English language the way it is supposed to be written. It might save you at best 1 second in a post of this size. That is, of course, presuming that you are fluent in both English and gibbering moronese.

What a constructive individual you are. You complain that we spend all our time here (which I don't, I'm going round my friend's house tommorow, I was at her party last weekend, damn that was fun...) and yet you seem to have enough time free in your obviously busy social schedule (I'm inferring that it's busy as else you'd be a hypocrite) to insult me on a forum. Wow, maturity. Ignore.

I've accumulated over 5000 posts in nearly FIVE years. That averages to just over 3 posts a day. You've been doing more than that replying to me, yet by your insinuations you don't spend 24/7 on a forum. How can that be?

When I'm on these forums, it's usually due to a slow night or a slow day at work. I have a social life, but I'm not going to brag about it to some half-wit on a gaming forum. I just simply pointed out the fact proper advertising would receive a much better response than half-assing it. Judging by most of the posts in this thread, the only people that agree with you can't spell worth shit, either.

Or you don't understand the simple concept of making things readable.

If you post something on forums, your whole intention is to have people read it, correct? Why, then, would you make it hard for someone to read what the Hell you're trying to say?

Nobody is asking for perfect grammar. My grammar is far from perfect, but what I type can be understood by anyone with an understanding of the English language.

i just dun thnk its hard 2 ask 4 ppl to typ out there wurdz.

If I come across a post and the first few words are "cell phone style" text, I'm not going to read the rest of the post, nor care of anything else that poster would have to say. Good English and grammar is very important when advertising anything; whether it be yours or not. I didn't know what the topic was about until I read cheesesoda's post.

Nice grammar nazis. You people have got to be bored to waste your time flooding up this topic with how much his grammar needs correcting.

I'm beginning to find this forum more disgraceful the more I read it. And you wonder why new players have a hard time settling in on these forums or even Renegade itself. It's because of shit like this. You should be ashamed of yourselves bashing someone based on someone's way of typing. It's basically prejudice. You people are just showing how stupid you are. From other threads, this is probably what you people want anyways. More publicity and flaming and constant bickering and fights over the most dumbest shit. You can add this type of a bullshit to the list on why Renegade is dead.

MiLeNCoL simply is just advertising a server he moderates and is a part of. Who gives a flying fuck if he didn't use proper punctuation. That doesn't mean he is stupid. It's just shorthand as you probably would on a cell phone. You're all a bunch of assholes. I'm pretty sure you people read clearly what he typed in his post. I sure did. Advertising a 40 player server for Oldskool Gaming. It's not hard to understand nor does it take a rocket scientist to figure it out.

You could of just read this topic and either join the server or not. There's no reason to bash him for his typing. It isn't even irrelevant to what he's advertising, neither is his profile and what his life is like. This is a game server advertisement for a dead old game on a fucking gaming forum not a job application for Donald Trump or some shit relating to the press.

Do yourselves a favor to these forums and renegade itself, go fucking waste your time on things that actually matter like keeping this game as cheat-free as possible or some shit while this game is still alive with the 400 players that are left.

im pretty sure every1 can understand what he said, if u cnt understand it, well then, ur the stupid one...

i never use proper punctuation or grammar, simply cos i cnt be bothered and i try to use my time for more important stuff, this is prolly the same for milencol, u ppl on the otherhand sit here on the forums perfecting ur grammar and trying to use the longest words u can possibly find in ur vocabulary to try to impress ppl over an internet forum..

if u dnt want to play in the server being advertised, dnt. ur prolly to busy posting meaningless garbage on this forum anyway...its an advertisement for a gaming server, in wich ur sposed to have fun, not whine over grammar, thats where school comes in, its not like u sit in a pub server and use correct grammar and punctuation everytime u hit the f2, at least i may hope not...

Exactly my point. It's still a forum. People can talk however the hell they want. It's not grammar land. I'm pretty sure you people still understand what each other say. It doesn't take punctuation for shit to get into people's heads.

People in Renegade talk shorthand all the time, are we gonna insult and ban them for it? I think not.

This is how RenegadeForums have been since I've been here, and it will probably never change. Different communities act in different ways, and they have their different principles. The people of these forums have a principle of good grammar. You're just stuck with it..

I'm beginning to find this forum more disgraceful the more I read it. And you wonder why new players have a hard time settling in on these forums or even Renegade itself. It's because of shit like this. You should be ashamed of yourselves bashing someone based on someone's way of typing. It's basically prejudice. You people are just showing how stupid you are. From other threads, this is probably what you people want anyways. More publicity and flaming and constant bickering and fights over the most dumbest shit. You can add this type of a bullshit to the list on why Renegade is dead.

MiLeNCoL simply is just advertising a server he moderates and is a part of. Who gives a flying fuck if he didn't use proper punctuation. That doesn't mean he is stupid. It's just shorthand as you probably would on a cell phone. You're all a bunch of assholes. I'm pretty sure you people read clearly what he typed in his post. I sure did. Advertising a 40 player server for Oldskool Gaming. It's not hard to understand nor does it take a rocket scientist to figure it out.

You could of just read this topic and either join the server or not. There's no reason to bash him for his typing. It isn't even irrelevant to what he's advertising, neither is his profile and what his life is like. This is a game server advertisement for a dead old game on a fucking gaming forum not a job application for Donald Trump or some shit relating to the press.

Do yourselves a favor to these forums and renegade itself, go fucking waste your time on things that actually matter like keeping this game as cheat-free as possible or some shit while this game is still alive with the 400 players that are left.

So's your face.

Oh ya Mason. Nice one. Lets just insult some more.

And BlueThen, how's it a lack of knowledge and skill? So you're saying when you see someone type like that such as ingame, and it's a majority of players that do it, you're saying they have no brain, no skill and knowledge, correct? You just quickly judged a person's character and nature based on their typing on an internet gaming forum or anywhere for that matter. There's no rule stating you have to use proper punctuation and grammar to post or make a topic or to even talk. It may not be english completely, but it's still not hard to read and understand when someone says something like "ur" they mean "your".

Mhmm, I can easily type correct as I am doing right now, yet i can type faster this way, jus shortening some words, how is it lack of knowledge or skill when u jus cnt be motivated to do it while ur acctually able to do it, it jus depends on the willingness of the person in question to use correct spelleing and grammar, ofc there are ppl who cnt type proper english for shit, but usually these ppl are not understandble, however, milencol is understandable so why dnt u jus save the grammar speech for school, i bet ull be really popular for it overthere...

It stands to reason that if you cannot be bothered enough to type correctly, or you don't know how to type correctly then you're a moron.

Get your shit together or people will always believe you to be stupid.

You people don't get it. You throw the whole "you can still understand it" argument out there as if it's valid. Maybe to you it's just as legible, but not to most people who actually obey the rules of proper grammar.

When you typed correctly at the beginning of your reply, I could actually understand what you were saying. Once you trailed off again into "txt talk", I couldn't understand it. I see no need to be forced to put effort into having to decipher a simple message.

If you don't care about sounding smart, then don't type proper to sound smart. Do it for the people who are trying to read what the fuck you're saying. Just because half-assing it is legible to like-minded doesn't mean that the rest of us can understand it.

I am sure that if someone makes Advertisement for for example a Shoes saying: "Cm to Buy ths shoes, they are rely grt", everyone will be buying them .
Just because this is forum, does not mean that you should type like moron when you advertise.
When advertising, you have to make your message clear as day, no matter where you advertise.
Are forums inferior all of the sudden? Since when?

Why do you think Sony gets attacked for some of their advertisements? By spreading the message in a bad way.

Best help for spelling(or if you can't be bothered to spell properly): Get Firefox with DOM inspector. Problem Solved.

We don't need dictionaries and "grammer" books to spell. It doesn't take much to spell and use grammar. You learn it in school. You should consider it.

cheese: why does it even matter how he types. You're trying to make the point that he should advertise properly, and thats fine, but you don't have to get into a flame war over it, just say ur bit, then let him say his. And like xpert said, why even bother. Its his decision to do what he wants, so gtfover it and play renegade, like were all here to do.

I'm saying out of respect for everybody else who reads what you post. I don't care if it's perfect grammar. I just don't want to see half-assed spelling that people think constitutes a word. I want to understand what I'm reading. I'm not in kindergarten anymore. I know how to read, so anything I have to actually work at understanding is either incredibly complex to understand or incredibly dumbed down that it melts your brain trying to comprehend it. Txt talk certainly isn't complex.

You miss the point, the fact, that this is an forum on the internet is irrelevant nor is how old the game is.

How one's self acts online just protreys what type of character they are offline, if they are faking it, then again, that shows what type of character they are offline, which shows them to be an negative person.

does your criticizing of his grammar and insulting him constitute as respect to you? it's much worse for you guys to fill this topic with flame posts and geek rants about spelling then his own somewhat bad typing which is still perfectly understandable.
