Just what I expected: the usual bullshit thrown against new communities whenever they are introduced here.

I'm not trying to put him/them down I'm just saying that speaking the truth it doesn't matter what the owner of the community/clan thinks it is what the majority of others think, and tbh I haven't really heard much about it and am already happy the clan/community(though it isn't that close to one) that I'm involved in so you won't see me going to check out another one unless I hear things from other people to go check it out.

Lies... or at least the Fnfall Marathon server isn't. I can't vouch for their other servers or forums as I've never gone to them =P

I was more of asking a simple question. Why should I join this community over other communities?

You have to give more reason than just "cuz its good lol"

Somewhat close to what I was saying you can't just say it is good and have the reason "cause there is nice people there" what makes it special.

Note that the teamspeak server is not dedicated. It's being run on a cox.net cablemodem connection (I'm guessing his PC), and the uptime has been <24 hours every time I connected.

No disrespect, I know not everyone can afford dedicated hosting, just FYI if you can't get on their TS, it's probably because his PC is rebooting.

Yes you could, and then a month or a year into there community you realize that they are crupt and they are full of cheats and lies.
