One game I played in Jelly-Server(Mini Aow) on Hourglass the AGT was down and I think the wf and we rushed in with buggys here's 2 screenshots:
<http://i152.photobucket.com/albums/s178/lone0001/ScreenShot45.png>
<http://i152.photobucket.com/albums/s178/lone0001/ScreenShot46.png>
after that I think we filled up an apc with chemwarriors

Another game on Hourglass(same server) they lost their barr and wf, we all rushed with Flame Tanks I thought it looked pretty epic() here's a video of that:
<http://s152.photobucket.com/player.swf?file=http://vid152.photobucket.com/albums/s178/lone0001/FlameRush.flv&fs=1&os=1&ap=1>

And Lastly another game on Hourglass(I play too much Hourglass don't I?) they just had barr, ref, and pp left(I think) and we rushed in with a heck load of SBHs here's a screenshot of that:
<http://i152.photobucket.com/albums/s178/lone0001/ScreenShot47.png>

PS. I've probably posted these screenshots about 3 times on this forum now

I had so many great games, it's hard to pick one. I remember a great game on city flying where I asked my team to light tank rush the agt, which we got down in the first 5 minutes (more or less) xD. It was so great because I had never seen a succesful light tank rush on city flying before xD. It was a long time ago, though .

One other game that can be classed as a "great moment" was a recruit training on islands where we, Nod, lost airstrip and GDI lost all except the war factory. We raveshaw rushed the war factory in the last minutes and killed it. I think we had like 5 raveshaws attacking on a 6 player team. It's amazing how fast a war factory can go against raveshaws .

Another one was during our I-CW where a seemingly lost game on Snow turned into a win for us (GDI) because of my ped ion. The ion killed 7 people that were trying to repair it in Vain . Mega boink!

I think they had ref too...

One of my favs from a few months back 8v8 game, 5 chem warriors rushing over tib on volcano, killed pp weps and ref

my best game was on under (3-3) we (nod) were losing with about 1500 points and only 30 seconds left since we had nothing to lose we quickly bought 2 flamers and 1 stank at about 10 seconds left, as we were just over the tiberium field, the other team typed gg and we knew we had to make a run for it.
at the final seconds, the agt was killed and we were about 100 points in advance never say gg before the fat lady sings

You must of got ur timescale wrong there...

1 min 30 secs sounds more plausible

nope sorry, we killed the agt in the last second, and people don't say gg when there is still a min left (ask goztow, he was on gdi that game)

one time years ago when jelly faced black-cell jelly was owning the field with arties and some guy ob walked next thing you know the ob was down and the entire black-cell team was in the base from the tunnels, the whole jelly team had to pull back to stop them the last 3 minutes of the game were complete chaos

it was awesome

I was on GDI, We were on C&C_Under and had several vehicles outside the NOD base, but nobody was rushing, only attacking Airstrip from a distance. So I bought Hotwire and APC, drove past our vehicle barricade and attacked the Ob. Since NOD was trying to keep airfield alive they weren't expecting it. I blew up the Ob successfully and the barricade swarmed in to destroy the base. I even was able to join in with a Mammoth Tank once I was retruned to base after being killed.

That game was awesome. I love Storm AOW server so much

[Sorry for bump but I do believe this is relevant to the topic. It ought to be stickied so people can brag when they feel like it, lol.]

well you got something wrong, cos agt kill = 750 points and you were 1500 down, if you were on tib field @ 10 seconds left you needed like 12 stanks to kill agt b4 time expired.

I've just had a blast the last 5 games I just played, the reason: every one of those games I planted an ion/nuke on the enemy ped to end the game works every time
