We have just set up another Renegade server.

We are not completely done with the settings, but it is ready to play.

The host name is A0000NS3, the game name is n00bstories.com - CP maps, the IRC channel is #n00bsvr03.

For those of you who like to direct connect the ip address is 67.228.100.162:9876

The current map rotation:

C&C_Walls_Flying.mix
C&C_BunkersTS.mix
C&C_FieldTS.mix
C&C_Gobi.mix
C&C_Last_Stand.mix
C&C_MutationRedux.mix
C&C_Sand.mix
C&C_Siege.mix
C&C_Snow.mix
C&C_Terrace.mix
C&C_Tropics.mix

This is rotation is only current not final.

If you have any ideas or suggestions please share them.

Why include Walls_Flying but not any of the other standard maps? (FieldTS is Field-shaped, but gameplay is so different it doesn't really count)

Like I said the rotation is not final. I plan to put a few more of the old maps in here and there. I am waiting for some feedback from people.

All the time I look in the server is empty.

But if 2 gamers join and start the game, I doesnt take long and more gamers join in!

Its really fun to see this maps again.

And yet you STILL advertise game server hosting in your avatar, even after admitting Renegade already has too many game servers. Go figure.

First of all just because I have an Avatar for my company doesn't mean people have to use it for Renegade. Just like how some people have have avatars and signatures for other personal reasons.

Should've waited until TT was out. I reccomend that, if you take it down, put it back up shortly after the release of TT.

TT knows when TT releases something.

Non-TT doesnt know what TT knows so basicly, give a timetable or something, ive got some sweet new maps that me and others created for our C&C server, but we are still waiting for the patch....

TT doesn't know shit about when TT is going to be released. We had that discussion before we did it. This was something we did for our members that wanted it. We just thought it would be nice to extend the invatation. We all get there are to many servers you can stop beating that horse.

Also, CP in my Renagadez?!?
