I've been fucking around with some door model, and it turned out awesome I was thinking about this when I saw people talking about it in the Mod Release forum about some door skin

I might release this when its totally done/fixed if some people want it

Allright Release!! The new version opens twice faster. If you find any bugs please inform me. I hope you enjoy

P.s move to MOD Release forum please.
Thanks

This is awsome, but tbh the colours dont really go for me.
Is that Radar dish on top of the Airstrip a part of your Airstrip interior release?

That is awesome.

Di3HardNL, I think out of everyone, you have become the best skinner for Renegade so far, this is truely awesome.

Have you thought about making a Stargate door?

It's way too slow. It looks like you would get caught on that door a lot waiting for it to open. It would also be a cause of lag if you were playing online.

True, but what he has done, is really really nice, who would ever think you could ever do this with Renegade? xD

Allright its released now

And this will absolutely cause no lag.
This model is 48 polys..

LoL so enjoy people

I thought this was humorous myself. The way it opens... the door sound... reminds me of someone passing gas out their butt hole.

I'm sorry, no disrespect, it's just hilarious. Nice work and effort.
