He means you should ask there. I think the files are the same as the normal Reborn troopers, just a different texture, actually. But I'm not 100% sure so DON'T take my word on it

Good lord come on, this is NOT hard to figure out. Reborn comes with the damned Leveledit, just pop that open and check the preset for him and you can see what model is assigned, then open that in W3dview and check what textures he needs.
