Okay.

1. Hourglass, guy in stank trying to shoot WF from a longer range for a 10 minutes, he even didn't noticed it doesn't take any damage from it.

This is one of the most n00bish and retarded thing I've ever seen in ren. How people can be so dumb?

2. Walls flying , GDI Apc is running into nod base, all the guys get out from apc and throwing remotes and timed on dead ref.

:S

3. Islands, tech in stank is going to nuke BAR. Hes getting out from stank and deploying beacon while theres a lot of people around him, while deploying beacon his stank got hijacked and he got ran over.

Guy drives around in a buggy backwards so less of the vehicle is revealed when shooting.

He then asks himself - why am I going so slowly?

Just seeing people repairing their Mammy right in the middle of the field with just an engineer is hilarious.

imho if you let an enemy vehicle stay alive around your buildings for 10 minutes this makes you even dumber.
