OK so i got board tonight and was looking at Tuts on Renegadehelp.net and got 3ds max 8.
And I'm making a little map, it's not done yet so don't get mad.

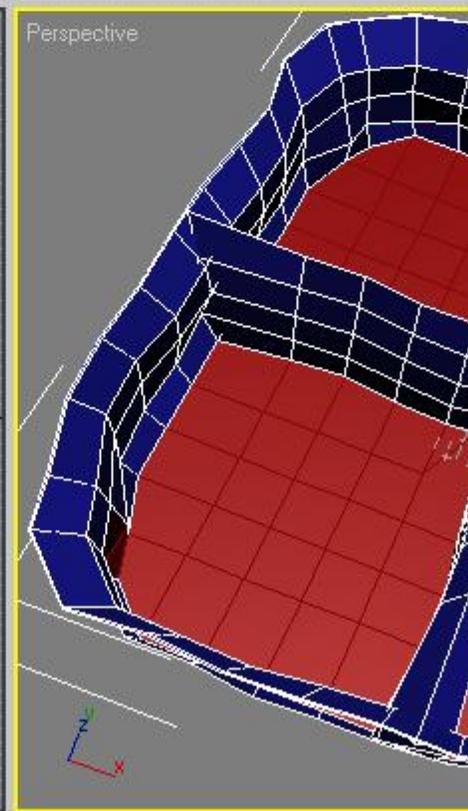

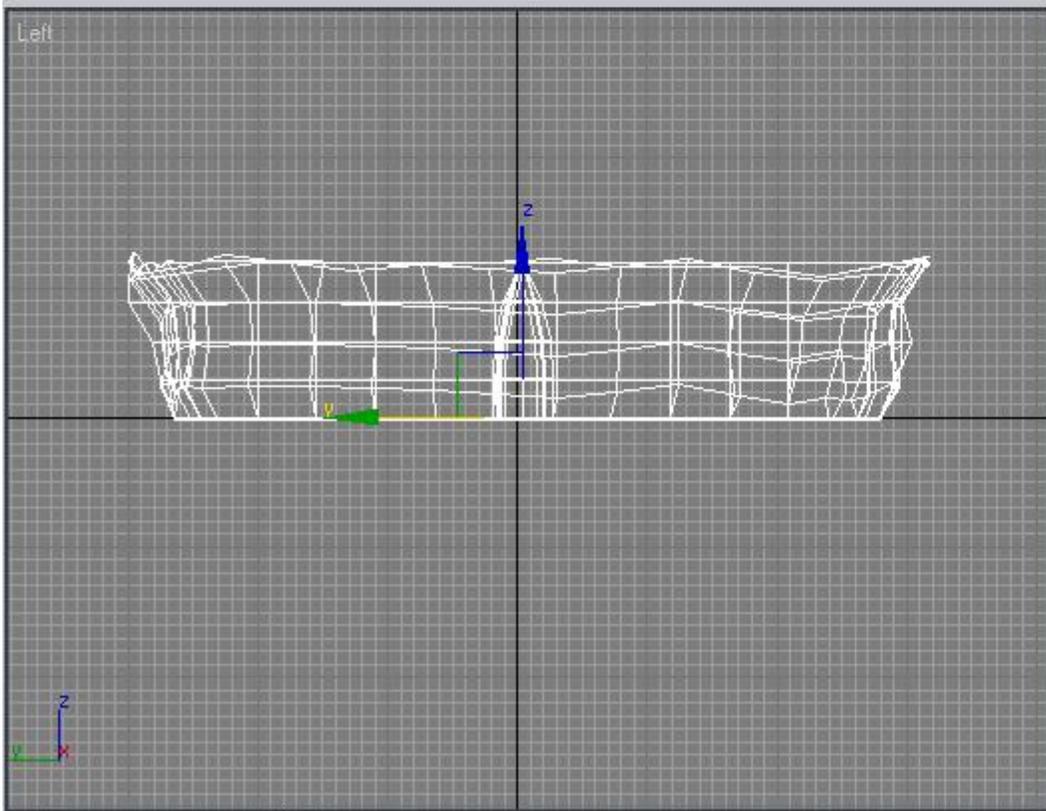

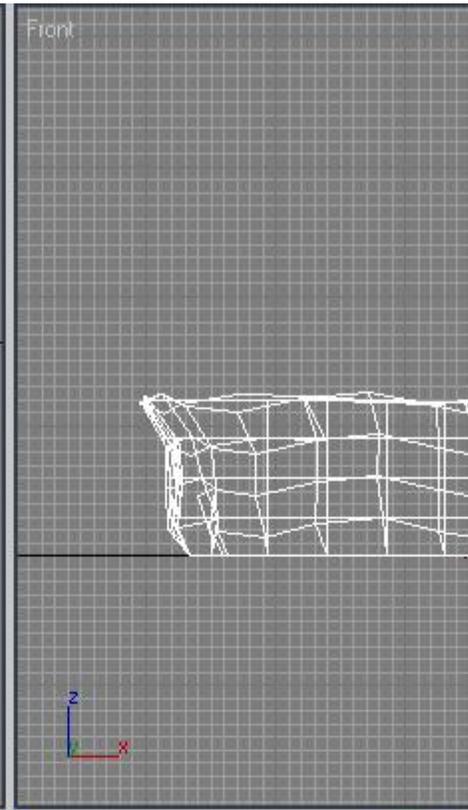

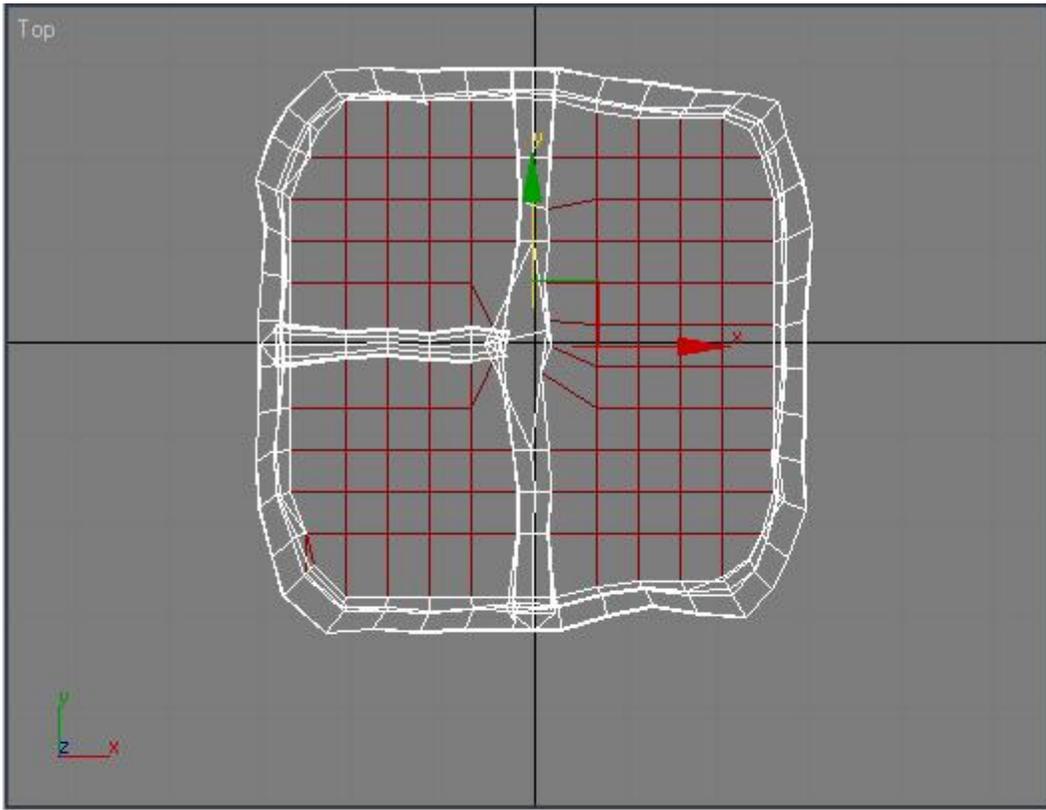

I'm going to Texture it now so ya.

So what do you think?

Update: OK so i delete the old one was having problems with 3ds max and the w3d exporter so i got it fixed now and started on this map.

I bet your following my old tutorial, you can watch it in much better quality here:

<http://www.pokemonca.net/rh/uploaded/perma/3dsmap/MapTut.swf>

I never liked how they put all the videos up on youtube and in terrible quality yes i am but i can't get the w3d exporter to work?

got any clues?

and i don't like how they got other peoples names on someone else Tut, or how they don't have the downloads like you did..

I wish RenHelp.net was still alive cus they really fucked it up, don't get me wrong i like game-maps.net for some stuff.

Same here. One of the members put his name on a lot of them and said he'd update the author names soon, but he's never gotten around to it... my only tut is bearing his name as author right now.

Yeah, and it's missing some good tutorials such as Blazea58's, as well as the VIS tutorials.

Oblivion gave up hosting renhelp.net ages ago, hence renegadehelp.net.

he said he was going to keep a copy of the site just incase.

if he would talk to me on msn or through pm on here i was trying to get him to let me have a copy of it so i can put it on my site and everything will be RenHelp.net not looking like renegadehelp.net by game-maps.....

but he wont answer me.

Yeah sorry about the no reply, I hadn't logged back in.

Yes I do have the entire website backed up, a lot of the links wont work because of the new domain name but its all there. (Easy fix too)

I don't mind giving you a copy, contact me on Yahoo or Skype:
