Lets get funky?

To shiny (due to shaders? cant really judge the brightness of the skin with them   ) and colorfull imo but nicely done.
Maybe its fun for people who are high now and then (or always   )

Yes because of shaders it's even more shiny,

It's hard to tell the actual nature of the skin because of the shaders, though if there is Screenshot and video tells more detail.

Looks awesome but can you see stealth in a shorter distance than normal? if so its a cheat.

Other than that I like it but will have to test it. I love skins but won't use advantage ones.

It's an advantage skin, not a cheat. Looks good, even though it's not my thing.

It's because of the shaders that if you come closer it's more brighter.

It's just colourfull, maybe because of that more advantage,
but it is certainly not a cheat
