Hitler's gotten mad at just about everything now.

Anyways..

I would recommend to all of you to go watch the movie where these videos spawned from. It's a rather enjoyable movie.

5 days ban for Sir Kane, for using completely inappropriate expressions. Neo nazism falls under the "no hate speech in general" rule, tbh.

Also, you've received several warnings from both myself and CarrierII to behave correctly on these forums.

You have got to be kidding me...

Seriously, there's no rule like that for Heated Discussions, and talk about being baited by a hook the size of Montana.

When the only reason someone visited this forum is to spit provocations, they can expect reaction sooner or later (later in this case, tbh).

Edit: not to mention that as a German, he fully well knows the significance of these words, even today.

I don't think anyone here cares THAAAT much (although I apologize if your family had your own history with nazis), but meh, Sir_Kane DOES come in and post alot of random troll-ish comments. But in his defense, they're usually pretty fucking funny (more than I can say for some other forum members).

Hail Victory = hate speech?

Get serious about all posts made in a parody topic.

Had Kane of made a topic about how he supports Hitler; Nazi Germany and the killing of Jews etc, I could understand where you're coming from.

But to jump on someone about a phrase like that seems a little overboard.

Looks at Sir Kane's flag

Just because some countries thinks something should be illegal does not mean the internet should follow those laws, especially if the people that live in that countries does not think those laws should be followed. Anyways, anyone whom has taken even a little German knows they over react a tad on this subject, (with first acting as if WWII never happened then obviously over reacting).

There are so many people in the world that everything one says will probably offend someone in some way; just have to hope that person isn't someone with mod powers I guess

I just mean, the day after the war ended they didn't go out and chat with each other about how cool it was and stuff (not that anyone normal would).
