TER-RIBLE seriously. Learn to appreciate your own skins. If it looks like crap then don't post it. It lost all detail! Make the camo even more transparent

Mixed looks like you just pulled it out of your arse.

Desert and Urban looks like it was made with ASCII art.

You didn't specify it was meant to be digital style.

They're all just mad because the beacons are not orange with a sign on top that says "I'm fucking here!"

A nice big emitter wouldn't go astray either.

do they just expect an ex-cheater to release cheats for them?

Ehh, that camo just doesn't flow well on the model. Mainly because it seems to repeat at every angle.

DMP looks the best of the set.

Maybe a couple sound emitters as well so if you have 3D sound you could pin point it with ease? And maybe some of that green tutorial text at the top of the screen to give you a heads up your near a beacon/c4, perhaps it could even tell you if it was to your left, right, up, down, etc?
"THERE IS A PROXY C4 CHARGE 14.4 METERS TO THE SOUTH EAST. OWNER OF THIS CHARGE IS 'IRW1NN3R1337', WHOM IS STANDING IN THE GDI BARRACKS."
