For some inexplicable reason, my serial seems to be banned from renegade (3.9 days left it says). This is an original serial code that I got when I bought the game years ago, and I have not shared it with anyone. My ingame name is maitybeer. Does anyone know why this might be happening?

This guy has been spamming at least a couple of servers with pages through XWIS, so it could be very well possible someone noticed and banned him. Good fucking riddance.

Your a dumbass for spamming the servers. What did you gain by that? Filling up log files? Oh big deal. That really showed the servers!

And while I think of it this is a good time to tell people to use the hooks.dll to block pages (spam pages) incoming cause a build up of page spams in your log files could present a lag problem for servers/bots.

that or moving to a tcp logging system.
