I've been away for ages... anyway, just wondering who's still around from XphazeGaming!

I'm 'XiaoRulez' by the way. 2001-2006

I'll try to get hold of Andysh and maybe we can have a reunion one of these days...

Also, i might revive the www.XphazeGaming.com Lets see if we can reel Yongga back in. (just need to wait for the domain to expire)

Ahh, good times.

I'm still around and so is NiTeCr4Lr, though he hardly plays anymore like myself, just on the random occasion.

Mark was around about 6-8 months ago but then he disappeared again.

VashTS I think is still lurking and Agility moderates for me. MorDos (dunno if that name is familiar

Hey Xiao and everyone,

I was looking through some of my old emails for something and came across a few old replies from when I left and after looking to see if xphaze still existed in any shape or form came across this post.

So... how has everyone been?

I may just have to reinstall Renegade and see if I can get back into it.

As per the site I should have a backup on a cd around here some where. It will take some digging though.

Hey guys, here's another old Xphaze player

Can't remember my old names though, changed them too many times lately, but I used to enjoy the server alot, until this asshat (Jaff?) banned me for "Ignoring him as the team commander"...

But anyway, I would gladly like to help you guys out setting up the Xphaze community again. As for the server mods, I still have a piece of paper somewhere listing all the customizations on Xphaze (crates, powerups etc.)

The website could be easily redone when you have the domain set up. I also noticed that the following domains are not registered yet: xphaze-gaming.com/org/net/biz/info/us. The only difference is a hyphen, but that shouldn't be too much of a problem right?

Just send me a PM on the forums here.

Man, I'm glad I caught this topic. Miss xphaze so much. Nice seeing some old faces from Xphaze around. Didn't have this name back then, was KoQGohan/SwQGohan back then. And anyone bashing Vash is a fag.

@Hitman, Biz came back a couple years back. Actually, back whenever I was at st0rm, a lot of people from Xphaze were playing there. Reaper, Arokh, Biz, saber, ssnipe, and a few more. Biz ended up leaving again. Said he was moving and he wasn't going to have internet but he was going to try and be back whenever he could. Nobody ever saw him since, but I haven't been around much.

But man, I wouldn't mind seeing "some" of the old topics from the xphaze forums

Also, if you guys want to do an Xphaze reunion, I can get some other people back. Goosy, Saber, Arokh, Ica, and a few others. They are on Xbox Live a lot, I'll see if they'd like to do a get-together.

THIS IS INTERESTING the resurrection of a dead horse is not a good thing this is coming from 43 years of living in experience "It's never a good idea to resurrect a dead horse" let sleeping dogs lay as they say.

Example of this is obvious note below comments just a few noted to many to really show in this message.

DON'T GET ME WRONG WITH WHAT I AM ABOUT TO ADDRESS I AM NOT BASHING ANYONE READ ON THERE IS A POINT TO THIS REPLY.

These comments are ridiculous..... Cheating to catch a cheat ?????????????????????? WTF

If I remember correctly, "I was using cheats to catch a cheater", so on.He was such a retard. There was plenty of drama towards the end of Xphaze.

blunts

Lol xphaze and yonnies cheatin ass. Ya i remember those days. Blunts4m3 was my nick
Re: XphazeGaming

Now I could continue with the examples of what I am talking about and continue this rant I at this point will summarize it.

I saw the good, bad and ugly side of XphazeGaming and the demise in the end Mark, MYSELF and Mike "Yonnie" paid out the poop shoot to try to keep the services up and running to much time and effort was put into the attempt to keep the community alive and up and running.

In the end there were several factors in which were out of anyone's control the demise of XphazeGaming was the community in itself and from within.

To bring it back to life again is like this "History repeats itself due to the fact that as noted here the same drama is still around same adventurous negative attitudes, immaturity and plain lack of respect for each other and way to many grudges being held and utilized for propaganda and drama.

"Let bygones be bygones"

Before the Community is resurrected I think that everyone involved should take some personal inventory and stock in themselves and start fresh leave behind the old drama never to speak of this again start fresh it is the only way it will work and be a prosperous, well rounded and fun community if this does not happen it will be a waste of time and money it will be a total failure.

1. Importantly MONEY, remember this is one of the biggest factors we had 3 people cant pay for a 300.00 dollar a month Net bill where you have 30-100 members and carry that weight Mike Mark and myself "Mark" ended up letting it go due to the fact we all had "PRIORITIES" personal and financial.

2. I haven't an issue with bringing back XphazeGaming however before this is to happen and be successful we need to establish and Financial commitment from all involved even if its just 5 dollars a month we have gone over this before enough of this rant today's economy is very tough and its getting tougher. World WIDE.....

"Have an account setup with Cash flow before we even attempt this"

As for the server files a lot has changed over the years so here it is I have all the server files backed up all our servers Mara, Sniper, Infantry even the old community layouts everything is backed up onto DVD it is a doable quest however there is only 2 people I will give it up to and that is Matty of course as he is and was our senior programmer "it is his work" and Mar72091 as he I trust more than anyone.

The rest is up to you ALL I can be reached through Atomix community as MorDos and I am interested in bringing the community back to life however the above must be achieved in order for it to be successful

"I wont support the old I AM TO OLD FOR THAT DRAMA.

I can even try to call Mike "Yonnie" and get his feeling on this being that he is the Owner of XphazeGaming name and Community, as he would be the best person to enable the account.

I have spoken with Yonnie we will be reviewing and discussing this today in a meeting Will let everyone know the results or he will respond accordingly.

As for ren, I pretty sure it doesn't work with Win7

As Mark said, it does. I'm running w7 and have it installed. Just make sure that you are running everything as administrator ><

Just download the iso and install it. Just make sure you can find a serial that isn't banned.

I just installed renegade on my newer computer today. It's funny how you never really forget how to play. I just get the call commands mixed up....

Has anyone created a facebook page/group for xphaze? Seems like it'd be easier to get a hold of people that way rather than scouring around the net on different ren forums.

Been playing BFBC2 and WoW myself. I know I wasn't a server regular but it was still a damn good one. Now to find Arthus98.

I read this, looked in irc, and you weren't there.

People keep joining, but nobody joins at the same time to get a game going. Haven't been playing much this week, if at all. Working a lot.

Well, with st0rm and Jelly it'll be hard. But, it was the top Mara. server back then. So, it could happen. I'll be in there a couple games tomorrow, since I'm off, if anyone wants to play.

Wad up!

God just reading all this stuff brings back good ole memories from those days. Not gunna lie those were some awesome times. Glad to see everyones still hanging around. So whats the whole deal with the servers and the fourms? I tried to check out the old url and didnt get anything. Hopped on irc for the first time in years, couldnt believe i remembered how to even register on that damn thing. I'll be on periodicly, my work schedule is all jumbled right now, keep switching my shifts. Someone want to link me to where i can install ren? All i have is my laptop so ill have to go out and get a mouse if im going to even attempt to play.

Hey all!

I'm philzn00b, later changed my nickname to n00bh4x0r when that fuckin Bizmalt banned me for owning his ass.

I have no idea why I ended up here right now, just thought of Renegade and googled and I landed here...

I might reinstall that old pure ownage game, but right now I mostly play BFBC2 and COD:BO.

Just wanted to say hi to all the noobs with who I had so much fun back in the years!

-philzn00b, n00bh4x0r!!!

(Hitman, your a hoe <3 haha jk bro)

EDIT: OMG @ MY SIG... HAHA

Giving this one last bump. As yonnie said, there is a facebook account, best bet is to gather there and see how we travel. Seems to be set to private, so send a request and message your Ren name I suppose, and wait to be accepted.

Great to see all the reply's, and old mates.

If you guys play BF3, look me up "XiaorRulez", same on Diablo 3 once out in May.

ALT+9

Was good reading some posts here. Happy to see some still playing Ren.

Bullshit aside XpZ was a fun ass place to play in the golden years. It was one of those servers that tons of good players stood in line to play at. We had tons of new things in our servers and were always willing to format them to our players play style. That in hole was what made XpZ a top contender back in the day.

Our staff at one point was dam good. Our servers ran very well unless they were being attacked. It did however become so huge that it needed a shit ton of support. That's when things got out of hand. To many hands in the cookie jar so to speak. I should know because I created XphaZe along with a small group of friends.

I started XpHaZe the day I named it in a meeting with yonega ,grngoblyn & Koolaid after a meeting with Koolaid to set ownership. Not to all sure if others were there long time ago.

Koolaid financed the servers while I built the community. Koolaid bailed later on like 4 months after rolling. Yonegga took the finances on his shoulders and paid out the ass! Yon & Goblin were also made owners at that point. We grew from that.

There was a lot of good people that helped XpZ along the way. Like I said it was a good place to be in the early years. Most mentioned besides me and yon should me Mark and matty. I worked the shit out of matty back then on ideas. Sry matty! Mark did a lot of stuff for several gaming communities especially his early work at XpZ.

I wish XpZ was still here like a few others. I also left XpZ because of personal life changes and yes me and yon just were not getting along well as some know. It was time to move on. If I knew things for whatever reason were going to go the way they did i would have stayed and fought for XpZ. It is what it is....

In any case not sure where this thread all landed. I am back playing Ren again. I am interested in playing with old friends. Been good mixing it up with a few here, gohax & Hitman and others. Good to see Goosey,socom and others here at forums. I recognize a lot of names here.

I got some calls and pm's in hope to talk soon. Until then I'll be on Jelly most likely.

Regards,

l00mpa

Socom still plays. He plays under the name MorDos now though, I believe. Most of the more known xphaze players are long gone. A lot play quite a bit on xbox. There's only a few left from back in the Xphaze days that are still around. But it's good seeing you again, l00mpa.
