So Reborn is not alone now on the "never released" software island... Will it be released before Scripts 4.0? lol

They look for testers in Texas.

Valve said that there are 3 announcements coming soon and each one is supposed to really surprise fans.

One of them is most likely HL2:EP3.

If it were any other company, I wouldn't be happy. But Gearbox makes super awesome shiznit, so this game will undoubtedly be super awesome shiznit.

Oh wait, it isn't!

It won't surprise fans if fans are expecting it! If there's a HL2 announcement, it'll probably be that Half-Life has actually ended and all the characters were dead all along since HL1. Gman is just meant to be God/Freeman's Father screwing around with Gordon Freeman's life and Valve decided to stop working on it after they realised LOST gave the entire ending away.

GET OUT

They've played with my heart too much already, Mr. Zimmer. I don't want it to be broken again, so I'm keeping my expectations low. I'm happy re-playing Duke Nukem 2 and reflecting on the good ol days.

Oh, ok. I thought you were being a faggot.

Well, I'd think the same thing, but considering it's Gearbox, I actually have somewhat high hopes.

MEANWHILE, AT VALVE...

it's cool that it's actually happening for the record i think Reborn will come out after TT; someone involved in Reborn said they are waiting on Scripts 4.0 before they can continue work

good luck

Pretty much every Renegade mod (that hasn't been released) is saying they are waiting for the TT patch.

Reborn really is. Things like the HMRLS, AAPC, UAPC, and DT all use/require features that weren't possible with scripts 3.4.4.

Yeah. Whereas APB has two versions being worked on- a 4.0 version and a 3.4.4 version.

If the game comes out in February like they are planning, then the world will end in 2012.
So the world will not end in 2012.
