Complex - jumping off of the middle with tanks is easy, meds and It's can drive straight off. Apc's, stanks and flamers need to jump into a wall so they starighten out. Arty's are an art(no pun intended), you need to roll off the ramp on the gdi side.

Mesa - you can drive humvee's up and down the nod ramp in the middle cave - resulting in an easy way to squash techs and engis on those artys. Most tanks can be jumped off the bridge using certain tactics, easiest way is jumping onto another tank or the harv.

More to come...

under - drive on top of the hill with a hummer and it will backflip into the path where vehicles cant go, also an easy way to drive into nod tunnels

Use the dumb avoid hon mines glitch by holding S while going off of top of hon. Makes it so you go through the windows...quite gay. Same with the air top wall hop glitch.

It's easier if you press s so you don't have to fall off it backwards, which can lag you back up quite easily.

Loki as in cheater/evader Loki?

If it is, I'm pretty sure you got trashed 2v2 everytime you went against me and Hellview/Angmar, and Hellview had downs, but you have more downs
