This is the Map from Jerad2142 and Canadacdn

this Movie took me like 2 Hours of recording and 4 Hours of editing enjoy [img=images/smiley_icons/icon_razz.gif]Razz[/img]

the Raw Files had a total size of 90GB and 1,5H. Edited one had 1Gb left and 27Min bah crysis 2 is the biggest shit the world has after cnc 4 the graphic is like shitten down and its story is completely different than the one from orginal crysis.

Crysis 1 was/is much much btter than crysis 2 because you could blow everything up and you were able to create natural disasters and the quality is much much much better. And its not eating so much Fps because of the quality rather because of the erros in the codecs

Never played Crysis 1, so I think Crysis 2 is amazing.

As for the video, I got some points to prove out.

You call it Metroid, yet you have Halo characters ingame. You also have a reference to Crysis in the game (the Ceph, I believe).

So Metroid, Halo, and Crysis. Which one is it?

Anyway, the movie was pretty cool. I watched first 10 minutes and skipped to the last 10 minutes. Didn't have time to watch it all.

Glad you guys enjoyed my level (Jerad didn't make any of it, lol). Yeah, the naming is confusing. I had originally intended for it to have much more exploration, and be single player only- hence the "Metroid" name. But, it just evolved into a co-operative multiplayer game, and ended up with what you play now. The name isn't very important. Also, you missed two secret areas. Just so you know, you can also climb down that cable to the room with electrified water near the end as well.
