I can't be bothered to get the camera and take a snap of my battle station, so here's a picture of my desktop instead.

If it wasn't for Homey, I'd still have the biggest e-penor in terms of screen space.

Fucker.

Put that in spoilers though, dawg.

edit: Homey, you gotta tell us what's under the hood :mouthwatering:

I dunno how to do spoilers do tell

I have:
i7 920 @4ghz
6GB of Dominator GT
OCZ Vertex 2 120gb
2 5870s in crossfire
evga x58 classified
Silverstone Raven case

The watercooling stuff is

Heatkiller 3.0
Feser 360 rad/swiftech 360 rad hidden
Two EK nickelplexi blocks and a mcp 350 pump

The monitors are 3 24" LG's. TBH I bought it for gaming, but I actually enjoy just never alt tabbing more than the gaming aspect of it. I was pretty split between eyefinity and 3d gaming, glad I went with EF as it's less of a gimmick than 3d.

I'm not showing my desktop. The fact is I have 3 legitimate rigs, with 23' flatscreens, over 10 tb of cumulative storage, 2 server blades, and 30 PCs from 400mhz - 1200 mhz Scattered around the room.

Looks like I raided a pc storage warehouse in my basement. (no I did not, I just saved all my old computers)

C&C Tiberian Sun lan party at my house anyone?

Also, I'm sorry in advanced but I absolutely have to make fun of him:

HAHAHA - I actually LOL'd.

Just so you know - I don't smoke, my ol man does, yes that's to measure my epenis cos it fails conpares to Xperts and the orange thing by my keyboard is a highlighter pen. My cough syrup is paint lol.

Nevertheless I LOLd hard.

Yeah I love logitechs stuff.

The headset was possible one of my best buys ever.

Although my PC could probly do with a bit of an upgrade in the near future.

Still running a Q6600, gtx 260 and 4gb ddr2 ram lol

I'm glad you enjoyed the laugh. Others would not have taken my little joke so kindly.   On the logitec note ... The bass bothers my parents at night so I resort to using stock jbl speakers for when I'm flaming in tramspeak ;p

That's very similar to what I was running about a year ago, except it was a q9550. Worked well, I just got an awesome deal on the processor so I had to upgrade.
