I have to ask, who does he think he is making these posts to? Seriously who is your audience DJ? New players that are joining here daily?

PLEASE ONE NEW PLAYER THAT JOINS DJ'S SERVER FROM THIS POST PLEASE REPLY AND TELL US WHO YOU ARE.

This is very clear now. DJ posts to get attention like a child acting out being neglected by his parents. It is the only answer.

yeah did hear something about area getting ddossed ect .. there seems to be only one or two server to befit from area going down .

also teeth if we was to talk about your server what would we talk about ..??? players none ? and none of us really have any intrest .

heres a tip if you wanted your server to have a chance you should not have told you was part of it . if it had just shown up in list and we all had no idea who or what it was we would have maybe given it a go ?

try make us think you gave it up then rename everything and launch it in a month or so and ppl may even join . name it MDK@aow@ bet more join than they do now or you could call it teethwhitening-aow ? or brusheachday-aow

You trying to say i've been behind these so called floodings? shaitan looked up Paddy's server and everytime they got "flooded" he had a backup running..

Like Paddy said, his DC can't even figure out what IP's were flooding him. Gee wiz I wonder why yeah yeah yeah ... I remember when all you guys as a whole defended wilo at one point also .

I see the big picture .. area was and or is not always empty and when more than 4 or so players join it starts ti fill.. thats when it seem,s to get hit . I notice this started to happen around the same times other servers was starting out or new and where is it the players go to after the crash or flood ????

yes I am makeing acusations with out proof seem's to happen a lot in ren. but I do have ppl who drop me info in pm maybe they also hate the ppl they are sayin things about .. but they know I am the one who will put this out there for others to see ..

What part of "forkane is doing it" did you not understand MDK? He's still flooding anyone who pisses him off.

The first "flood" was the server making an auto-backup(SFPS was 2). The rest I'm not sure of. After forky was flooding my personal internet and Animo's personal internet, I stopped going to that IRC(vhost showed our IPs there) for awhile.

I just have one question:

Why in shit's fuck would you do this to yourself?

Why would you set up a new community from a RQ in a game that is known to have only one major server left, ON YOUR OWN? (Oh that's two now, oh well)

Pretty easy to answer actually, the Ping for many european players in the current american servers are bad, especially when a huge amount of players is ingame. There also isnt a high quality AOW server online for euro Players, not all active Players liek to play with those settings, so thats the point where rengamerz steps in in future

BlackIntel is still 100% european, and I think we can call that quality. Playerbase could be better, but then again, for what community this isn't the case except Jelly and NS?

Possible, i might explained it wrong, it will take some time until the regular european players who once played @ RC f.e. find their way to our Community. We will see.

Aint true, but i know the Jelly fanboys like to stand up for each other, 3 weeks online around ~150 diff. players in the ranking atm,this is a good start. If u prefer to play jelly, then play there, those who prefer a non-lagging veteran AOW Server will join mine anyways

But i appreciate that u guys like to discuss over my community, keep it up, and if u ever feel like u need a lag-free aow game you are welcome to join my servers,if not, np others will do you have no community or player base the only time your server has players is when you arrange all your home town buddies and other buddies and get them all to join at same time hoping other may follow.

I did see about 12 in there other week st-john - sarah-fee-protos ect all giveing you a little support the fact you made it know you was involved in the server at start was it's down fall . if it had just popped up in list we may have given it a try and it could have done well . but you had to let all know dj-cry was open a server and you seald it's fate .

let say if it ever did get a good player base like area54 did then you and you mods would soon ban or run out any players with your attitudes towards players.

I think a new law should be writen that anyone who joins eikes server will be life banned at all other servers .

dj-eye-k is the bacteria that eats away at the teeth of renegade and we need to brush like crazy to remove this germ from our game

ps .. forgive the pun

pic taken about 3 mins ago rofl.....fail mr lonely

that would be fun
DJ would grab a ramjet and sit in the tunnel
the other guy would go kill his base that looks like the place to be for veteran AOW players
