Same here. What noise should a scope make?

Cleaned out the topic, so now on topic please.

Did it make a noise without TT?

I think he means that when he is zoomed in sometimes, he doesn't hear the firing of his gun. I've had this happen to me too many times. It just makes you wonder, am I really shooting?

I know what he means, but I am wondering if it's not stock behaviour, since the sniper rifle also claims to "zoom in" on sound, according to singleplayer.

I've always heard a sound while shooting in scope mode pre 4.0

You also hear a sound with the ramjet, seems to be just the sniper rifle.
