So in the months of late, there's been a rise in popularity of the RenCorner servers, who have what are arguably the worst administrators to ever assemble. The owner is a bicurious 19-year-old pothead/growing alcoholic from New York, who seems to think it's great to be "from da hood nigga" and spread misinformation so that he can get away with banning anybody he pleases. Their co-owner named Volcom/Trojan is an arrogant prick, who payed Ani a grand the day before (or of?) he gained his position at RenCorner -- I bet it was completely based on merit. So what, we've got an idiot who'll sell-out his community for drug money, is that it? Well, this particular community owner also happens to be the type to packet flood your home connection (he doesn't know how to do anything beyond that) because of a minor incident where you manage to delete the work you've done for his community after he decides to remove you entirely for no apparent reason (no, I mean it - no reason). Oh, but after he's finished his attacks, he'll try to lure you back so that he can get more work out of you, since nobody else in the community knows how to maintain their own servers. As long as you're entirely dedicated to his servers, and nothing but, you'll be fine with no problems at all; though if you do happen to have your own community, be prepared for accusations that you're stealing users who have been around your community before theirs even existed, or people that you effectively brought over to their community (which is ironic, since the community was effectively founded on player-stealing). Don't be afraid though, I'm sure those accusations will continue to accumulate until something quite reasonable -- something along the lines of:
<02:37:52> "Agent" was banned permanently from the server by "Animoski"
or
[02:42:05] Closing Link: Agent[*.lightspeed.clmasc.sbcglobal.net] (Z:lined (Faggot))

(Oh, and just for a kicker -- he'll ban the people he tried to say that you "stole" from him. Now I just wait for that beautiful message informing me that I'm banned from his forum!)

I love how you try to insult someone's age when you are 17 yourself. Looking at your past in our community alone I think everyone would agree that you have no ground to stand on. You were an administrator in our community which entailed you abusing your powers in game to benefit yourself, which eventually got you removed as admin. Then to top it all off you avenged your ban by deleting our entire minecraft server. As for the ddos? I have no idea what you are referring to.
Do you have any evidence of this? If not then that is just an empty accusation by some bitter teenager that got banned for constantly trying to steal our minecraft players after once again being stripped of your powers for abusing them again.

As for me all you can say is I am an arrogant prick? Really? I am an arrogant prick because I was the one who put you in your place when you did something wrong. I was never out of line talking to you. I talked to you one on one about every issue I had and you were such a power hungry kid you couldn't get past it. You are also one of the most power hungry people I have met in my entire life. You will stop at nothing to feel like you are in charge.

The $1000 I paid was for a hosting company to obtain 50% ownership. It was nothing to do with Rencorner. As for how the money is being spent I highly doubt you have any idea. Did Animoski send you his paypal or bank account records? No. You are speculating because you are a bitter, power hungry child.

I'll leave you with this: Grow up. You are trying to tarnish the name of a community in a game you do not even play. You do not know the members of Renegade or this forum so do not pretend that you do. You are here only to try and start drama with malicious lies and statements you have no way of backing up or proving.

Thanks for publicly making yourself look like a moron and yes you are correct, you are now permanently banned from anything RenCorner related.

I hope you mature later in life.

Regards,

Trojan/Volcom.

If "all RC's shit" is just a Minecraft server, then yes. They had a backup, and I had spent many hours the day before improving their server, just to receive a giant "fuck you". I honestly feel completely justified.

Trojan wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 02:11I love how you try to insult someone's age when you

If age was the one thing that seemed insulting, I think you need to re-read.

The reason I lost the position is because a separate administrator was banned. You really can't say "abuse" when every single thing I did (except for productive work, of course) has been repeated by staff members who are still there.

I was referring to a DoS attack from several months ago, before you were around. Though I'm not sure if I still have a copy of Ani confessing to it lying around, I'll just copy a small piece from the report email I sent to the provider of that particular server. (This was a free server Ani had received for a month, so he decided to use it to the fullest extent)

Yes, because helping your incompetent staff with their terrible server is power-hungry, and killing a couple players who would have likely been other-wise banned is so abusive. Though, you're definitely not -- paying $1000 for a position isn't power-hungry at all. You're arrogant for thinking you can properly administrate a server for a game that you don't even know how to play. You're a prick for thinking you can critique people on every little thing they do.

You bought 50% of a company that doesn't really exist, and continues to make no progress to actually doing anything. You're either dishonest or an idiot. As for how Ani spent his money, I'll admit I'm only basing it on what he said on TS.

You do realize that I played Renegade well before RC existed, or I even heard of "Animoski", right? I've just never cared to post anything at all on RenForums except for a couple posts in the TT section. As for "malicious lies", I know not what you mean -- Everything I've stated here is Agent you're taking a MineCraft topic to Renegade players........it's obvious you are mad and these guys will feed on it. Your post will not serve the purpose you are looking for.

In the end Agent, agree or not, owners have a right to restrict who has access to their Community. After all it is why the ban function exists.

Let it go dude. Walk away. Forget about RC.

Even before I touched MC servers, I developed for RC's Renegade server. I'm rather glad I ceased any real connection with their Renegade server -- it'd be awful if I'd given them something that's actually unique and useful. I intend no offense to most of the members and staff there, some of them are great people. Though, the owner of a community can't just irrationally ban-ban-ban players, just because they're upset -- there will eventually be nobody left to ban.

As for why I'd post here of all places? I'd considered posting on their forums, but then realized my posts would either be edited, deleted, or locked, as opposed to over here where it's actually quite the open forum. On that note, nice to see the oh-so-familiar "You are not allowed to visit this community." message. ;D

Woah woah, back the fuck up here. Do I smell a hypocrite? Talk about spreading misinformation lol, i'm not bicurious, bisexual, gay, or anything other than straight. I'm sure everyone cares about the other details as well, such as my age, hobbies, and the terrible staff that has given you multiple chances to clean up your act. But yes, I do "think" I can ban anyone I please, considering I own the community, but do I go on banning sprees? Do I ban people completely out of the blue for no apparent reason? I don't think so, more like getting rid of immature imbeciles like yourself who don't realize they're spoiling the fun for others, we're playing video games dude, grow up. I'm sure you're jealous of my ability to ban people, if you were to put down your hammer you'd be sitting there by yourself on teamspeak . As for my business arrangements with Volcom, if he paid me a grand for a position, why would I wait any longer than a day to give it to him, and what does that have anything to do with you? You make no sense dumbass.

Oh, but I get it. Might have something to do with him taking your spot, doesn't it? You're jealous of the fact that the only thing you were able to do was suck my dick for a few months and offer to merge your 4 year old, 3-man community show called SSIGaming. Obviously, you're a great community owner. Your entire community is hosted on a free VPS that you stole from someone you hate, and your entire staff is made up of people without any kind of experience or is all over the place. You're such a great community owner, why does your forum look like a carbon copy of mine?

I packet flooded your home connection? You might wanna look into your own clique of stupidity for that one. Also, since when was deleting a Minecraft server with over 5k~ registered users a "minor incident?" Maybe if someone deleted your server it'd be a minor incident as only so many would notice, but don't disrespect everyone in my community because you couldn't control yourself. Also, when the fuck did I even try to lure you back to RC? After you deleted the MC server and your ban mysteriously disappeared, you came back to RC on your own accord, only to continue sucking me off and others to try to get "an official position" in RC. Did I ever give you your position back? How many times did you beg me to bring you back in simply because of how bored you were? Nobody knows how to maintain our servers, right? Well, if that was true, than imagine how big we would be if we did have someone who knew how to maintain our servers? Imagine how big your community would be if you had someone actually capable of running it?

The only thing you ever gave RenCorner were headaches for everyone involved in it. Yeah, because shaitan and myself are the worst administrators in the world. Too bad we have a community full of support and people who think we're going in the right direction. At least at MPF, you can be a server admin within a month, and a full mod within a week. I love how they disabled their forum plugin that showed who connected in the last 24 hours, you only saw people with mod status or above and maybe 4-5 actual members, lmao.

But since I love you iRAN, here's RenCorner sniper server at 4am and everyone else..

Well I would like to point out that Rencorner blatantly copied the same forum, similar options, donations, donation perks, similar colored user groups as MPF. Not sure what else? as you guys hide everything else. Besides all that most members of Rencorner were once members or current members of MPF .... and we haven't removed any sort of plugin or anything related to new members or whatever it is you are talking about, everything at MPF is public.. and on another note, promotions of mods etc are based on performance and willingness to achieve a higher standard..

I'm not against renecorner but I despise the fact that most of the content their is basically copied /similar to our own..

MPF was around before Rencorner...

Same forum software, same skin but used differently.

Pretty sure we offer different perks for people who donate.

Also, similar colored user groups? Don't get me started, I purposely had different colors put in place and had a different layout for the groups (instead of Ren Half, Full Mod, and 10x other mod levels, I put in "Server Moderator" only, keeps it simple, you guys copied that, never bitched about it though)

You removed the plugin that shows who signed on the forums in the past 24 hours, don't care much for it. But seriously, look at your mod to player ratio.

Most of our content is copied? Please show us what is a copy and i'll get rid of it. I'll take a week to get to it though, the same amount of time it took zunnie to realize Tiny flat out copied one of our "forum etiquette" posts.

Tiny has nothing to do with MPF any longer. Our plugin only shows registered members, why would we want to display anything other than that.. as for the colors we've had that since we started, and that was when you were onboard with MPF at the time... so

Nope, everything.

All I can say is that MPF had been around before rencorner even existed, so I cannot see the logic on how we copied anything from you guys.. so pretty much case closed

Good one driver I wouldn't say a thing, you produce nothing to improve the renegade community, you where a part of the dev team for MPF, nothing produced.. but some half assed terrain..

I fail to see how I came out and said MPF copied us? You're the one who attacked us over copying shit. The only thing I made fun of you guys is for making people admins/mods way to easily. Your logic is, more mods, more people in-game. Which is true, but is wrong.

Otherwise MDK and possibly DJ would never have been made mods..

A modified Marathon: MPF tried to copy.
Game giveaway: MPF copied.
Mod levels: MPF copied.
Secondary group permissions for forums: MPF copied(you did have that clusterfuck of a layout for ages until then).
UT3: Total copy of that game. Rene-UT3...I didn't realize Renegade == UT3 nowadays?

I have no idea where you get that mentality of us, cause it isn't true, most mods and half mods get promoted to higher positions to fill empty ones that other members have vacated or have been moved due to promotions, I don't see what MDK and DJ have to do with this discussion, both have proven themselves worthy..

We have have the a number of mods to be sure we have someone in there at all times, so we have moderators/admins in there 95% of the time..

lol tcw is a shit of a mod that is why I left, I have respect for Zunnie for doing it but what you guys wanted me to do was crap, all the maps are exactly the same, same terrain, same everything, same ugly ship in the middle of everymap, and No, I actually produced quite a bit for TCW just never gave it to you guys.

Imitator? RenCorner came out of no where with the help of my old bud that helps run MPF and you guys got so jealous you called up a community meeting and pretty much forced people to start playing "and come out of the woodwork" lol. You guys were lucky to get 10 people in at a time while we were having 40+. Imitator? More like innovator.

I'm done arguing with you guys over at MPF, keep jabbing us for no reason and we'll do the same. Our community isn't even a quarter of the age MPF is and we're doing just as well, if not better - we'll see what happens when we play a commwar, which isn't going to happen with that attitude.

Some of your responses almost make sense Ani! Good job!

Ani wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 11:35Also, since when was deleting a Minecraft server with over 5k~ registered users a "minor incident?" Maybe if someone deleted your server it'd be a minor incident as only so many would notice, but don't disrespect everyone in my community because you couldn't control yourself.

Oh please, don't even try to say "5k~ registered users", when at the time there were probably around 20 people who even played the server -- spam bots that you don't know how to protect against and randoms who join for 2 minutes then never come back because it's so poorly setup can't really be considered "users".

Ani wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 11:35The only thing you ever gave RenCorner were headaches for everyone involved in it. From the utter crap plugins you made for our Ren server which were used for about a week, to the plugins you put on our MC server and badly configured, you were a constant nuisance, including your terrible attitude of getting into arguments with everyone.

Crap plugins? They did exactly what they were supposed to do. You can't say the actual programming of it was bad, given that you didn't even see it.
Badly configured plugins? That's a joke, given that I fixed the "badly configured plugins" that weren't even added by me. I can't help if that IRC bot you stole from St0rm causes glitches -- I even recommended that you not use it, since it shows you people's passwords.

Keep talking out of your ass. Your plugins were terrible and everyone knows that, reborn had to help and we all laughed at your sloppy coding. The IRC bot from St0rm isn't stolen, Cronus got it (as well as permission to use it) from the actual person who makes it. 3 days after we got the bot we disabled passwords/PMs on the admin channel, which people who have RDP access can see in the Minecraft server logs regardless...

How can I call your coding sloppy? I asked you to make a simple !buy railgun command, and you gave the entire server rate of fire hacks that let people kill buildings in 2 seconds and we had proxies flying all over the place. That's sloppy, dumbass.

You're irrelevant to the fullest extent in Renegade and RenCorner. Congrats on being the 2nd person i've ever blocked on this site..

That's truly hilarious! That was fixed within the hour, and I had already explained to you before-hand that it was entirely untested since I couldn't get a proper testing environment setup yet. It's not "sloppy coding" when you are debating between 2 Renegade-specific scripts to attach to an object, and happen to choose the wrong one (resulting in the railgun having unlimited ammo in the active clip instead of the secondary, causing rapid fire).

Congrats on useless logs. Those ips trace back to no one from our community nor any of our

Yes, because helping your incompetent staff with their terrible server is power-hungry, and killing a couple players who would have likely been other-wise banned is so abusive. Though, you're definitely not -- paying $1000 for a position isn't power-hungry at all. You're arrogant for thinking you can properly administrate a server for a game that you don't even know how to play. You're a prick for thinking you can critique people on every little thing they do.
Oh your killing of the two players was the tip of the iceberg. I had constant complaints about you and spoke to you multiple times. You just decided not to listen because you honestly think you are more intelligent than anyone on the face of the earth. Guess what man you're not. You some nerd in high school with little to no friends who comes on here to feel important. That's cool, but don't try to act like you are better or smarter than anyone else on here because you are not. As for the money, whatever is was a $1000 and it gave me a project to work on. My hunger for power is irrelevant and I have done nothing at RenCorner to show that I am only there to tell everyone what to do. I have done nothing but good and will continue doing so. See you wouldn't understand the concept of doing something for the community, because everything you do benefits yourself.

Agent wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 09:06

admit I'm only basing it on what he said on TS.

A company that doesn't exist? Up until a month ago we hosted your VPS. That is until you got I've just never cared to post anything at all on RenForums except for a couple posts in the TT section. As for "malicious lies", I know not what you mean -- Everything I've stated here is either factual or an opinion.

Lol, I would hardly say you played Renegade. I know people who have started a week ago and had more of a concept and skill set in game. As for your coding of renegade I have failed to see anything productive you have created. Please get the fuck out of Renegade and enjoy your ban from Rencorner.

Oh really? I am quite confident you were remove for abusing your powers in game. Let me provide proof:

This of course being in a game completely unrelated to these forums.
Command usages are irrelevant when taken out of context. Maybe you should read-up on that same thread before you go quoting it -- you might realize that it's not abuse.

Trojan wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 13:58
Then of course you rage at Animoski in pm:
Good job quoting private messages from months ago? How deep did you have to go to get those?

Trojan wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 13:58
And what do you do next out of pure rage to earn your first ban from RenCorner? You log onto an administrators FTP and delete an entire server because you wanted to flex your e-muscles:

Lrn 2 rd br0. This exact topic has been discussed several hundred times across various locations and platforms. Give it a break, seriously.

Let's try to not lie anymore ok?
I don't even understand why you included a fake gline in a community that Ani clearly had malicious intent for.
Trojan wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 13:58
Congrats on useless logs. Those ips trace back to no one from our community nor any of our servers. You might as well print those out glue them to construction paper and bring them to your local police department and see what they have to say about it.

I'm not sure if you know how to read or not. It was a server from Staminus, a host provider which granted Animoski a dedicated server for a free month, which he didn't get around to using for anything other than that attack. Why did he accept it if he wasn't going to use it for anything? The original intent was at least legal:
Quote:
[14:42:50] <Animoski> yo
 08[14:44:17] <Agent> ohai
[23:38:46] <Animoski> so
[23:38:51] <Animoski> we have a server for the next month for free
[23:39:00] <Animoski> its from that old place, not the 1st one but the one b4
 08[23:39:07] <Agent> lol
 08[23:39:09] <Agent> k?
[23:39:18] <Animoski> ...
[23:39:19] <Animoski> im saying
[23:39:23] <Animoski> lets do the vps thing
[23:39:26] <Animoski> 8 cores, 8gb ram
 08[23:39:26] <Agent> ;o
[23:39:27] <Animoski> nothing on it
[23:39:36] <Animoski> dont need it, etc.
[23:39:46] <Animoski> if i can make them hit $90 on it we can make a profit
Though as far as the "bring them to your local police department" goes, there are two problems:
1) Too late; 2) I chose not to, despite the fact that Staminus recommended that I do so ("We strongly request that you file a police report"), because as it turns out, I'm not a fan of legal action.

Trojan wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 13:58
A company that doesn't exist? Up until a month ago we hosted your VPS. That is until you got angry because you lost your powers at RenCorner again and decided you didn't want it anymore. Want to know why I switched providers? The owners are untrustworthy and only had a single customer, me. Your website isn't even done; have you ever even looked at it?

Trojan wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 13:58
Lol, I would hardly say you played Renegade. I know people who have started a week ago and had more of a concept and skill set in game. As for your coding of renegade I have failed to see anything productive you have created. Please get the fuck out of Renegade and enjoy your ban from Rencorner.
You've never made an effort to see anything productive I've made. You're more than welcome to come visit and see my work-in-progress IRC bot if you'd like. I can also give you some old source code too cutie-pie.

I can't waste my time replying to you anymore. You have no one on this entire forum supporting your argument and everyone basically is calling you a moron. Take a hint and get the fuck out. Your post accomplished nothing. Go try and start up yet another fail community let's see how many players you can get from Renegade. I'll expect to see your numbers to be at a constant 0 within a month. As for your minecraft server, as soon as you start abusing your powers you will lose your player base. Enjoy your life and I hope you grow up soon. If you do not change your going to have a very lonely life bro.

For the 3-4 months or so RenCorner was using public donations to keep your community alive and the only thing I got out of it was a zline in the end, that Agent claims I was only doing for "malicious intentions" - did I ever do anything to go behind your back? The only thing i've ever done was try to give you advice on how to make your community better.. Which, to this day looks less active than Agent's new (old?) community.

I mean, cmon I can't believe kids these days, get your heads out your asses.

Watch out guys, i'm Wilost0rm in disguise and i'm out to butthurt everyone. Get real.

The "fuck up" involving that command was confusing "Ammo" with "Clip_Ammo". It's not that difficult to confuse the two.

Omg guys. Seriously.
Renegade is dying, the amount of players is decreasing (I know you can say: "GTFO renegade is still awesome", but just face the truth), and still you guys are bitching about whose community is better.
Isn't it time to chill? There are too few of us to fight for a place under the sun.

They are, actually. He has the utmost respect from me.

Gumby's awesome.

Even though Agent had a messy past, shaitan gave him a chance to help fix up the MC server, which it did need. He spoke to the MC staff before hand and they all agreed.

Agent's help was requested by shaitan to help with the MC server, he helped, like he was asked to do. Stealing users? I seriously doubt it, because Agent considered RC his home and he liked Animoski so, why would he risk that friendship?

1. We are fucking bitching over someone stealing user group colors..

2. We are fucking bitching over someone using the same forum skin.. that 25 thousand fucking forums use.

3. And about Renegade Server\idea copies.. Can you please tell me what your server does that hasn't been done before or what can't be done in 10 minuets worth of coding?

4. Agent: Yes.. RenCorner is pretty fucked up. They offer positions for dumb shit(Money, flooding, Advert). And they ban if they get alittle butthurt.

5. Animoski: No one gives a flying fuck about your mother fucking in-game users.. You bring this shit up in every fucking argument. No one cares bro. There are servers on CS:S with maxed slots year long. Are they some how special now?

6: And all these other kids who are posting shit like "best reply ever!".. go jump off a building.

7: Where the hell are the moderators on this forum?

Please excuse my language.

I did not write this to offend anyone what so ever.

This post was written to notify everyone on how stupid and idiotic this topic and the posts are.

You think you can get away with saying that shit to me over the Internet? Think again, fucker. As we speak I am contacting my secret network of spies across the USA and your IP is being traced right now so you better prepare for the storm, maggot. The storm that wipes out the pathetic little thing you call your life. You're fucking dead, kid. I can be anywhere, anytime, and I can kill you in over seven hundred ways, and that's just with my bare hands. Not only am I extensively trained in unarmed combat, but I have access to the entire arsenal of the United States Marine Corps and I will use it to its full extent to wipe your miserable ass off the face of the continent, you little shit. If only you could have known what unholy retribution your little "clever" comment was about to bring down upon you, maybe you would have held your fucking tongue. But you couldn't, you didn't, and now you're paying the price, you goddamn idiot. I will shit fury all over you and you will drown in it. You're fucking dead, kiddo.

If you were a REAL Navy SEAL, you would know the power of killing, and would be reluctant to use it. Plus, you could have dimensia.

Or your insane. In which case, we can't believe you anyway.

I may have disappeared for a few years, but I'm pretty damn sure he wasn't being serious.

What the fuck did you just fucking say about me, you little bitch? I am trained in gorilla warfare and I'm the top sniper in the entire US armed forces. You are nothing to me but just another target. I will wipe you the fuck out with precision the likes of which has never been seen before on this Earth, mark my fucking words. my abs aren't poorly shaped tbh; there's just a lot of stomach covering them, so it's hard to tell!

and Iran's DJ comment goes without saying he's one of the most self-important people i've seen in Renegade since i first stepped foot in a server playing in first person

Which is good because according to Top Gear the UK aswell as western Europe is 'the civilised World' (proof: watch their last trip to the US in the current season). And as this was meant in general I have to agree.

So for this point, either you're still 2nd best only or you are lying.

2) So you already surpassed Chuck Norris

3) Really nice piece of text but that sounds more like a Hollywood Story. Considering the dutch IP, you can't be anywhere within the US at any time because you have to swim thousands of miles first to reach US Territory.

You just wrote some russian words translated into western letters. It wasn't meant as a personal offense but on the other side the flag doesn't automaticly prove that one understands this language only.

If you can't read it right it isn't my fault.

Agent wrote on Sat, 26 January 2013 01:47So in the months of late, there's been a rise in popularity of the RenCorner servers, who have what are arguably the worst administrators to ever assemble. The owner is a bicurious 19-year-old pothead/growing alcoholic from New York, who seems to think it's great to be "from da hood nigga" and spread misinformation so that he can get away with banning anybody he pleases. Their co-owner named Volcom/Trojan is an arrogant prick, who payed Ani a grand the day before (or of?) he gained his position at RenCorner -- I bet it was completely based on merit. So what, we've got an idiot who'll sell-out his community for drug money, is that it? Well, this particular community owner also happens to be the type to packet flood your home connection (he doesn't know how to do anything beyond that) because of a minor incident where you manage to delete the work you've done for his community after he decides to remove you entirely for no apparent reason (no, I mean it - no reason). Oh, but after he's finished his attacks, he'll try to lure you back so that he can get more work out of you, since nobody else in the community knows how to maintain their own servers. As long as you're entirely dedicated to his servers, and nothing but, you'll be fine with no problems at all; though if you do happen to have your own community, be prepared for accusations that you're stealing users who have been around your community before theirs even existed, or people that you effectively brought over to their community (which is ironic, since the community was effectively founded on player-stealing). Don't be afraid though, I'm sure those accusations will continue to accumulate until something quite reasonable -- something along the lines of:

<02:37:52> "Agent" was banned permanently from the server by "Animoski"

or

[02:42:05] Closing Link: Agent[*.lightspeed.clmasc.sbcglobal.net] (Z:lined (Faggot))

Umadbro? P.s Trojan is alritteeee. No homo.
