You have to admit you liked DBZ at one time, who hasent(its gotten rather lame now with them trying to be funny too much)?. Otherwise, most of it is lame shit like Pokemon (Its Java's favorite so shhh) and that stuff.

If you have DirecTv, and the Encore channels with the Action channel, they show some good anime movie like on Saturdays.

Now if your like 12 and you come home to watch cartoons on the WB, well no duh its going to be gay. Try looking elsewhere.

Also Epyon they take out all the blood,sexual references and swearing. They change things like these which makes it really sucky. Also they sometimes change the dialog completely just for the fun of it and even put it in when none was there before. They take all swearing out and replace it with words like "darn". They delete perfectly good scenes too just to shorten the episode. I would rather watch the japanese versions and not understand it than the translated ones.

Um, how about no...

A friend told me about dbz on the cartoon channel a few years ago, so I turn it on when it comes to that time, sat through the opening, watched 1 or 2 minutes, than got tired of the lame crap that is anime. The best part about it was, the commercials... And the credits at the end, you know, so you know you've finally wasted 30 minutes of your life. Didn't want to waste that much time, when I could have been doing more productive and fun stuff, like watching mold grow on this one corner

Majjin VegetaAnime is the best type of cartoons made you could say they have a better FPS than all those other cartoons

anime rules

Ok since I been gone for like a day or so and missed out on all the fun on the forum I must comment on this.

Now me I love Japanimation. But they don't make the best cartoons.

The best cartoons ever made are the old school cartoons. If anybody is back from the day when He-man, She-ra, G.I. Joe, Transformers, Smurfs, SPEEDRACER, The Flintstones, The Jetsons, etc. etc, Know that those were the best Cartoons ever made. The old school cartoons always rule. ESPECIALLY TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA TURTLES (old school show). I loved that cartoon.

Now Japanimation is good but it sucks in a way. I mean I like Japanimation but it lacks in a lot of areas. For example STORYLINE! Now everybody knows Japanimation has the worst storylines ever made. I mean look at DBZ. I like almost every Japanimation cartoon but DBZ is the one I hate most. Cause of the storyline. Or mean look at what the writers do. They go and create a powerful evil person. Then Goku or Vegeta goes and defeats that evil powerful person. Then they go and create another powerful evil person that is much more powerful than the last one then they have someone like Gohan go and defeat him. AND IT GOES ON AND ON!!!! I mean what type of storyline is that where you keep creating powerful people for them to defeat. See what it is is DBZ is all fighting and no storyline at all. Who wants to watch a cartoon with senseless violence and no storyline. The only people I can think of is young people. Cause as you get older you don't wanna watch crap like that. Cause you want to watch something that has more of a storyline that draws you into the cartoon that wants to make you keep on watching.

Another example is Pokemon. You can tell the writers of Pokemon keep running out of ideas. When they're creating the same thing over and over again. Look what they do. They keep creating a new adventure for Ash and his friends to go on. How many adventures as they create so far. First it was the regular adventure, then they created the Johto League and now they are creating other adventures for him to go on. And you know it just gets boring.

And that's the way almost all Japanimation is. All fighting and no storyline at all. And these days people prefer storylines over a lot of other things. You have to have a really good storyline to keep people drawn to anything. That's why anything that is made today such as a movie, tv show, videogames, etc. has to have a good storyline to keep people drawn. If it doesn't have a good storyline, that tv show is going to get canceled and that videogame or movie is never going to get made.

And that's what Anime lacks. It's all show and no storyline. There are some Anime that has good storyline. Like Digimon, I liked Digimon. Cause each season they had a good storyline and they always changed it around. They didn't keep the same thing over and over again.

I would point out other things but don't have enough time. So i just pointed out the main thing.

Yea roadrunner and coyote has a much better storyline than DBZ. I like DBZ because it has alot of humour and action. If you think the story to DBZ was bad that was because Akira Toriyama was going to end it at the Frieza saga but he didnt and carried it on, so it made less sense. Ah well we better let this topic die before we get a flame war or somethin.

I don't really watch cartoons that much anymore...

But I don't like anime because the animation looks stupid and crappy... It's like watching a 10 fps movie, very choppy and whatever. Yeah I know it is supposed to be like that, but it looks really stupid. And the huge heads and eyes add to the level of stupidity, which is already quite high. And the extreme exaggeration of their faces and whatnot every few seconds when something happens looks stupid. Etc.

What the Hell???? First of all why would you compare a Warner's Bros cartoon to DBZ. Warner Bors. cartoons is are about comedy. It has no storyline whats so ever. But it still better then DBZ. And if you read my first paragraph you'll see the cartoons that I stated that was the best. Should of compared those instead of bringing up a cartoon out of nowhere.

2. You go into a whole big old story about Akira and Frieza or what ever when I don't really give a rat's ass. No matter what the writers do with the story, its still the same thing.

3. I don't think this is turning into a flame war. THis is more of a debate on how Japanimation sucks. There is one side of the people that think it sucks and there is another side that think it don't suck. A flame war would be more of two people calling each other bad name and other people jump in the battle to do the same. So I think of this more of a debate.

Sir Phoenixl don't really watch cartoons that much anymore...

HAHAHAHAHAHAHA... That is so funny and true. But Phoenix, there is some Anime out there that looks completely different then from the basic Anime. Like there are some Anime out there that actually have characters that look like real people. Like they don't have those Big eyes and big heads. They are animated to look like real people. The mostly the anime I watch.

But we all can agree 3D animation is the best. TOY STORY RULES!!!! :thumbsup: :thumbsup:

EDIT: Here, this made me laugh. Sums up all of DBZ:

alright, maybe its just me, but it seems most of you are baseing your anime judgements off of just a few anime series. imo i really don't think you should judge anime off of just those few that you've seen (i actually think compairing american cartoons and anime are like compairing apples and oranges anyway but thats beside the point.) there are a few things that i do agree with here, such as the exaggeration of the characters eyes and such. as for the story lines, pokemon and dbz are not good examples to go by. i'm also going to put this out there even if some don't care, dbz was suppost to end when goku went super saiyan and defeated freeza. akira originally ended it there in japan then, a lot of the fans complained and he then decided to keep going on it and thats where it really gets stupid. however, if you watch it from the beginning (when goku was young) to where it was originally suppost to end it really is a good series. most anime that i've seen has very good story lines like akira, ghost in the shell, cowboy bebop, and neon genesis evangelion. the list is endless.

the other thing that someone said that i completely disagree with is lack of originality. not sure really where that one came from, almost every anime i've ever seen is not a cheap copy off of something else. as a matter of fact if you look at some of the disney movies they are copies off of anime. anyway, i've rambled on long enough, just throwing in my 10$ worth. go ahead and keep not watching anime but, imo, your missing out on some very good stuff.

1. As I stated before about the Akira and Goku thing. Don't really give a Rat's ass. The Storyline still sucks.
2. Remember I said there are SOME snime that is worth watching cause they have a good storyline. Ghost in a shell is a good one to watch. Akira. HA! Are you kidding me. But anohter one I really like to watch is Gundam Wing. That s a good anime to watch.
3. HAHAAHAHAHAHAHA.... Disney copying off anime movies. Thats a laugh. First of all you have to remember if it wasn't for Disney, cartoons would have never ever been made. Remember "Steamboat Mickey" in the early 1940's. First cartoon ever made. And pluss makes up alot of there own idea with movies. They don't need to copy off anyone esle. Looks how many years

Disney been making cartoons. Man they have more cartoons then any anime out there.

And another then, american cartoon was the first to have everything in them. Such as they were the first to have comedy in them. They were the first to have cartoon violence in them. Its just people that make anime want to take cartoon violence and comedy and make it much better. Which they do succeed SOMETIMES. The cartoon violence is up there with the best but most of the comedy they do in there really does SUCK (And take me on this cause I am a stand up comedian). Most of the jokes in anime are not that funny.

I'll finish this later. Gotta go to work.

actually disney did copy off some anime movies. disney's atlantis: the lost empire is a copy off of nadia: secret of the blue water. the lion king was a copy off of kimba: the white lion (one obvious is between simba (lion king) and kimba (white lion).) as for who created what first, as you so stated a few times i really don't give a rats ass. as for comedy. thats just your opinion. some people like british humor to, i personally don't. most of this whole threads arguement is opinion (in other words we can go all day and not get anywhere.) so, with the disney stuff i think i'll leave this thread alone. i could give lots more disney copy references but i really don't feel like it.

HAHAHAHAHAHA.... now this is funny. You actually serouisly think Lion King came from White Lion. Man that is so funny. You need to read up on your disney information more instead of looking at the movie and comparing it. Same with Atlantis. I would tell you where they got the idea of Lion king from (I know it wasn't from no stupid white lion). I would say where they got the idea for both Lion King and Alantis from but as you state this whole thread is mostly opinion and it would keep going on and on.

And the readon why I bring up the whole thing" Who create it first" cause you said Disney copied off Anime. So I had to point out many thing that Anime copied off American cartoons. Remember, if you're going to state something, you have to state the good and the bad side of it. You can't state th good side of something you like and not state the bad side. And thats whats you did. You stated what disney copied off anime (which is stuill complettely wrong) and to make side equal I stated what Anime copied off American cartoons. So if you didn't want to hear that or didn't give a rat's ass about it, should not had said nothing about it.

Hehehehe... I like british humor. Especially I like those Monty python movies. Those are funny as hell. Of course I still prefer American humor. I still like my Chris Rock.

Hey buddy, I'll let ya in on a little secret. The Lion King was just a Disney remake of Shakespeare's Hamlet. Nothing was copied from a gay anime in Japan.

P.S. The only true anime I like is Gundam Wing and Cowboy Bebop. Those two are the only ones that I really appreciate.

Well my real point is everyone i know who likes anime and doesnt like dbz, doesnt like it because they watch it once then dismiss it because someone they look up to thinks it sucks. I agree dbz has a crappy storyline after frieza saga but it wasnt suposed to go that far. Anyway everything has a place in this world so we all know there will be a person with a different opinion and we all know we most probably wont change that opinion so i guese thats just how it goes. Oh and he-man sucks.

Oh and John Shaft Jr you really misunderstood me when i said Akira Toriyama was going to end it at the frieza saga, Akira is the creator of dbz not a character .

Dragonball has a storyline; a young boy falls from the sky in a spaceship, gets brought up by an old man. He gets taught kung-fu and one day he falls from a cliff and hits his head and doesnt act bad any more. He meets a girl called Bulma and they go on a search for the dragonballs and have adventures. Then in DBZ goku finds out he is an alien from the planet vegeta and well it goes on goku beats Frieza and thats were it should have ended. I would have said more but you dont listen to my points anyway so i wont.

Once again, it doesn't have a storyline. And I do listen its just that you don't undertsand what I mean. What i mean by it don't have a storyline is that the storyline sucks. Its boring. Its don't keep you drawn into want to watch more of it. Believe me, I saw the first season of DBZ. And it did suck. Except for that Goku and Freiza fight. That was alright. But the storyline was boring.

Now Gundam wing has a very creative storyline. So does Ghost in a shell. But I still like my American cartons. I pick the Simpsons over anything anyday.

I would argue about WWF (yes its still WWf to me) but too tired right now.

WWF had to change its name cause last 2 years ago a group called The World Wildlife Foundation sued WWF for having the acronym. They sued cause they said they people say "WWF" they might it it mixed up with "World Wrestle Federation" instead of the "World Wildlife Foundation". And WWE fougth them back with their lawyer cause they truly had the name and the acronym first before the World Wildlife Foundation came along. But the judge gave the name and the case to World Wildlife Foundation cause they support animals and there habitats and because its a "good cause" as the judge say. So the Judge ruled in favor of World Wildlife Foundation and World Wrestling Federation had to change its name to World Wrestling Entertainment.

But anyway, I rather be a charater that is a atheltic person and is tough then try be some make beleive character from some cartoon where the powers are completely unreal.

If you want something with unreal powers as an example then superman and all those marvel comic cartoons suck also? Yeah whatever and if you want a real storyline for DBZ watch the history of trunks special or the bardock special. Those have actual storylines. HAHAHAHAHA.... its funny how you bring up something that is completely away fromt he subject of what we are talking about. But I'll go along with it.

Now me, myself, I'm a big comic Book fan. Hey Marvel comics is waaaaaaaay Better then DBZ. Even though their powers are unreal it still kicks DBZ ass. Seruiosly, DC and marvel has a bigger fan base the DBZ will ever have. They been making comics every since the 1950's. They have the biggest fan base ever. Not only that the storylines are waaaaaaaay better the DBZ. And its A COMIC BOOK! They don't need no fancy flashy powers to make them selves look good. Marvel and DC put the storyline so well that readers go and buy the comics books cause they like to used they imagination. They like to be in the comic book and read it. They don't care abotu no flashy fight scenes or bullshitty ass piece of crap fighting all the time with no storyline.

And that is the reason why Comics beat DBZ. Hehehehehehe..... anything esle you want to bring up. I got all day.

I must say that I am not a big fan of anime. Although I do watch a great many of them on TV and on DVD. DBZ has used the same story format since the beginning, as have most anime. It's sad.

ending jap obsession with 'battles.' I think at most that there are three maybe four different story formats for anime...they are over used and relay too heavy on the watchers ignorance and willingness to watch over plotted storylines. even Akira (i cant wait to be flamed for this one) and Ghost In The Shell use the same formats that DBZ, GW, GiantRobo, molldiver (- not sure about the name of the last one, I only had the dvd for a few hours,) and a shit load of other series that i watched.

I would rather read the original Manga, then sit and watch a half hour of badly written dribble. Some anime is good, some is funny, some is even thoughtful, but most is utter crap. Not many good scripts come out of Japan. There are writers out there in Japan who are never heard. They are the good ones. The people who commision cartoons in Japan would rather use the same old crap writing formulas and formats then go with some thing new.

Why take the risk?

note of the story structure. You will see what I mean.

Oh yeah. one last thing. If like GW and other anime. Go to your local comic book store and order some of the Manga... Its better to read then watch.

Alright 1. Not only did you judge, you just made assumptions. Cause first of all, you don't know what the hell I watched and what did I watched. You just assumed and think I didn't see it. Never ever assume anything. Always asked before assuming. You didn't see me doing that shit to you.

2. You were away from the subject. I won this debate already cause you went far off the subject. If you don't know what yo did then let me point it out for you. First of all you bring up "Everything owns WWE". Now till that point I stayed on the subject. For example when I did this debate I compared cartoons to other cartoons. I compared Japanese cartoons to Americans cartoons. I stayed ont he Subject. Until you strayed away from it and said "WWE just sucks because its just totally stupid and trys to have a storyline, which really sucks btw." Now I was trying to stay away from it cause before you said that I said, "I would argue about WWF (yes its still WWf to me) but too tired right now." Cause it doesn't make any sense to compare the two. Cause they are in 2 different genres. Why go and compare Reality to cartoons. Doesn't make any sense. But I went along with it and compared it and won successfully. Then you bring up "Marvel comics suck." or whatever. Again you went way off the subject. Can't compare comic books to cartoons (well you can in a way but not going into that). I'm saying to myself, "What the hell is this. He's losing the debate so he's comparing to different genres." Let me tell you something, when I do a debate about any, if it politics, sports, cartoons, whatever, I always try to stay on the subject. Like I did, I compared cartoons to other cartoons. I don't go way off the topic to compare stuff to other. You did that twice already. I just said "fuck it" and went along with it.

Vegita246Oh and don't put HAHAHAAAA at the start of your post it makes you sound like an idiot.

3. Then you said I sound like a idiot when I say "HAHAHAHAHAHA". First of all you have no right to judge me. You don't know me. You don't even know why I used the "HAHAHAHAHAHAHA". No. Cause you didn't ask. Like I said in the beginning you should ask before you say anything. You don't see me doing that to you. I could have said, "Man you sound like a 12 year old." But I didn't Cause I know nothing about you just like you know nothing about me (Well kinda not true if we read each others profile then we would know a little bit about each other). All I know is that you're some person that I having a debate with over the internet about cartoons.

WalrusI must say that I am not a big fan of anime. Although I do watch a great many of them on TV and on DVD. DBZ has used the same story format since the beginning, as have most anime.

You are right. And that's what I've been trying to tell everyone. It sucks cause they use the same storyline over and over again.

Except I disagree with you about the WWE. WWE is not meant to have a good storyline. Its there to entertain people. All those wrestlers in WWE is very athletic and are good entertainers. Not only that they take a lot of pain in what they do. The reason why I chose WWE over DBZ is because well I chose WWE over anything. Actually I choose Anything that deals with Reality over anything.

For example I rather choose to watch A basketball game then to watch a cartoon. Or I rather Lifted weights then read a comic book. I rather play basketball then playing a videogame and pretending to be Kobe Bryant and playing basketball. I choose Reality > non reality stuff. Non-Fiction > Fiction. Except when it comes down to the Simpsons adn South Park or Renegade and some other videogames.

Its better then being a character that in completely unbelievable.ahem Vegita246.

Hey you still bring up those genres. I know I didn't bring them up. I tried to stay clear of them. And I did prove you wrong. I said DBZ storyline doesn't have a storyline as in the storyline sucked. You never countered it. You explain DBZ storyline (which i already knew) but never counter on why it don't suck. You could of said soemthing like "The storyline don't suck cause it has love and action and comedy in there." Then I probaly would have lefted you alone (probaly not :twisted:) . And I won cause you said "Alirght DBZ sucks" Then I started dancing.

So you want me to comment on DBZ right. NEVER!!!! (Laughs evily and says) I have great hatred for DBZ. Actually to tell you the truth I used to like DBZ in the beginning when Goku was little. And used to watch it all the time. That was back when I was 13. As I got older I start not liking it and started getting into storylines more and started reading books (That was also around the time I started playing Resident Evil. That game has a great Storyline to it).

I thought I did comment on DBZ. I said the fight between Goku and Freiza was alright. Hmmmmm.... I think that was about it. Only thing I can say good about DBZ is they have good fight scenes. Thats about it.

But as you know I prefer Jackie Chan movies cause all his stunts are real and he does some dangerous shit.

Im a sucker for action movies/shows an thats what got me into dbz, an yea resident evils story is probably the best for any game. Also DBZ doesnt suck i said it sucked compared to gundam wing + simpsons but it doesnt suck on a whole. I hope i dont sound nuts saying all this but try to understand. Il comment on dbz storyline like u said. DBZ storyline doesnt suck because; You find out about it bit by bit and there are alot of mysterys that are not unsolved untill the end. There is action,drama,love, comedy and the one thing that is in almost every movie/cartoon/tv show the good vs evil story. Also the storyline makes sense up to frieza saga (iv mentioned this too much i know) so thats a good thing.

You damn right you get a HAHAAAAAAAAHAHAHA. What I'm doing iws I'm laughing at what youa re saying. Do you even know what you said man. You're comparing a CARTOON to REALITY. Seriously man. Are you so caught up in a fantasy that you can't tell cartoon from Reality. Keep telling you can't compare the two. And If you did reality always wins.

Sir Phoenixx

6. And John Shaft Jr. won. ("Ok you win dbz sucks compared to gundam wing an the simpsons . I still like it though . Dbz Owns WWE")

Right around there you said it Phoenix.

Wait Phoenix did start this whole thing. Says with a english accent Damn you Phoenix. Damn you to Hell.

Notice it's in Quotations in parenthesis. I quoted that from one of vegita's replies.

And I didn't start this, kirby did...

OMG, liar!

Both you and John Shaft Jr. replied in this thread more than me. :rolleyes:

John Shaft Jr.: 17 replies

You: 19 replies

Me: 14 replies (including this one)
